Table of Contents

List of Contributors ix

Preface xiii

Human Rights

Human Rights and the Challenge of Relevance: The Case of Collective Rights
Abdullahi A. An-Na‘im 3-16

Pieter van Dijk 17-33

The United States’ Reservations to the ICCPR; International Law versus God’s Own Constitution
Willem van Gemegten 35-46

International Human Rights Obligations for Companies and Domestic Courts: An Unlikely Combination?
Fried van Hoof 47-59

‘History Stalks Before it Strikes’: Tightened Identity and the Right to Self-Determination
Rhoda E. Howard 61-78

The Challenging Struggle for Fundamental Social Rights
Teun Jaspers 79-90

Out of Control. State Responsibility and Human Rights: Will the ILC’s Definition of the ‘Act of State’ Meet the Challenges of the 21st Century?
Rick Lawson 91-116

The Inter-American Commission on Human Rights and Women, with Particular Reference to Violence
Cecilia Medina 117-134

Migrant Workers as a ‘New’ Minority. Sociological and Legal Definition of Minority
Anna Michalska 135-150
The New Trend Towards Re-Politicising Human Rights
Manfred Nowak 151-161

The Rights of the Child
Jacqueline Smith 163-173

Non-State Entities and Human Rights within the Context of the Nation-State in the 21st Century
David Weissbrodt 175-195

Combating Organised Crime in the Netherlands – The Ramola Case
Hans Werdmölder 197-207

Turkey and the European Convention on Human Rights
Leo Zwaak 209-228

The Nation-State, Human Rights and International Organisations

The Human Rights Committee’s Concluding Observations
Ineke Boerefijn 231-249

United Nations Strategies to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination; A Sobering but not Hopeless Balance-Sheet
Theo van Boven 251-264

David P. Forsythe 265-276

NGOs and Democratic Process in International Organisations
Leon Gordenker 277-289

Intergovernmental Organisations, the Nation-State and Minority Protection; Possibilities and Obstacles for the 21st Century
Joost Herman 291-305

Hilde Hey 307-326

The Challenge of Intervention on Behalf of Democracy
Henk Leurdijk 327-346

Nico Schrijver 347-357

Some Reflections on Human Rights and International Organisations

Max van der Stoel 359-363

The Nation-State, Foreign Policy and Human Rights

What Sovereignty was Transferred to the Republic of Indonesia?

Herman Burgers 367-384

The Netherlands, the European Union and the Protection of Human Rights

Monique C. Castermans-Holleman 385-399

Human Rights, Globalisation, and the State

Jack Donnelly 401-410

Democracy and Foreign Policy: The Incompatibility Thesis Revisited

Philip Everts 411-425

Human Rights Violations: A Threat to International Peace and Security

Fred Grunfeld 427-441

How Realistic is the Realist’s Position on Human Rights?

Alfred van Staden 443-451

The Predictability of Foreign Policies: The British EMU Policy

Frans N. Stokman and Robert Thomson 453-465

Peace Operations: Some Lessons for the Future

Joris J.C. Voorhoeve 467-472

European Politics in the 21st Century

Jan Zielonka 473-483

Bibliography 485-497

Index 499-504