Iconography, Propaganda, and Legitimation

Edited by
Allan Ellenius

European Science Foundation
CLARENDON PRESS
1998
CONTENTS

List of Plates xvii
List of Figures xx

Introduction: Visual Representations of the State as Propaganda and Legitimation
by Allan Ellenius 1
The Baroque Stage 1
The Rhetoric of Images 2

PART I
The Rhetoric of Images and the Spell of Metaphors 9

1. The Portrait of the Prince as a Rhetorical Genre
   by Kurt Johannesson 11
   1.1 To Teach and Persuade with Examples 12
   1.2 The Instruction of Princes 16
   1.3 Princely Portraits 22
   1.4 Epilogue 35

2. From the exemplum virtutis to the Apotheosis. Hercules as an Identification Figure in Portraiture. An Example of the Adoption of Classical Forms of Representation by Friedrich Polleröf 37
   2.1 Introduction 37
   2.2 Identification in Portraiture 38
   2.3 Hercules after the Revolution 62

3. The Orb as the Symbol of the State in the Pictorial Cycle Depicting the Life of Maria de' Medici by Rubens
   by Matthias Winner 63
   3.1 Consignment of the Regency 64
   3.2 Coronation of Maria de’ Medici 70
   3.3 Apotheosis of Henry IV and the Proclamation of the Regency 74
   3.4 Council of the Gods 79
   3.5 Felicity of the Regency 84

PART II
Agents of Fame-Making 87
4. Monarchic Liturgies and the 'Hidden King': The Function and Meaning of Spanish Royal Portraiture in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries

by Fernando Checa Cremades

4.1 The Beginnings of an Image: From the World of Burgundy to the Defining Iconography of Maximilian I

4.2 Art, Architecture, and the Establishment of Power under Charles V: Limits and Symbols of Authority

4.3 The Purposes and Functions of Court Portraits

4.4 Philip II and the Ritual Concept of the Image

4.5 The 'Realistic Portrait' and Images of the Kings and Queens of Spain, 1500–1800

4.6 The Hidden King and Funeral Images

4.7 The Extension and Transformation of Seventeenth-Century Art

5. Propaganda and Legitimation in Castile: Religion and Church 1250–1500

by José Manuel Nieto Soria

5.1 Apparent Secularization

5.2 Ideology and Government

5.3 Resources of Propaganda and Legitimation

5.4 Popular and Courtly Devotion

5.5 A Christian King for a respublica christiana

PART III

Medieval Legacy and Renaissance Imagery

6. Rex et sacerdos: The Holiness of the King in European Civilization

by Sergio Bertelli

6.1

6.2

6.3

6.4

6.5

by Gunnar Danbolt

7.1 Introduction

7.2 The SS Quattro Coronati Frescoes from 1246

7.3 From SS Quattro Coronati to the Stanza dell'Incendio in the Vatican

7.4 The Stanza dell'Incendio in the Vatican

7.5 A New Political Situation for the Church

7.6 The Internal Political Situation

7.7 Significance and Presentation
7.8 Conclusion 171

8. Visual Ideas of Papal Authority: The Case of Bologna
  by Rudolph Preimesberger 173

PART IV
Rituals and Ceremonies 191
9. Ceremonial Space
  by Juliusz Chrościcki 193
  9.1 Terminology 193
  9.2 Church 194
  9.3 Residence 199
  9.4 Town 207
  9.5 Country 212
  9.6 Routes in Four Areas of Ceremonial Space 214
  9.7 The Iconography of the Modern State and Ceremonial Space 215
  9.8 Conclusion 216

10. Beneath the Ceilings of Versailles: Towards an Archaeology and Anthropology of the Use of the King’s ‘Signs’ during the Absolute Monarchy
  by Gérard Sabatier 217
  10.1 The Functional Issue 219
  10.2 Descriptive Approaches 225

PART V
The Demise of Time-Honoured Mythologies 243

11. The Demise of Royal Mythologies
  by Peter Burke 245
  11.1 The Crisis of Representation 246
  11.2 The Decline of Correspondence 247
  11.3 New Mythology 251

12. Republican Virtues and the Free State: Conceptual Frame and Meaning in Early Modern Europe and North America
  by Thomas Fröschl 255
  12.1 255
  12.2 257
  12.3 262
  12.4 264
  12.5 269
  12.6 273