

THE RETURN OF MITTELEUROPA: SOCIO-ECONOMIC TRANSITION IN POST- COMMUNIST CENTRAL EUROPE

SOHRAB ABIZADEH AND ALLEN MILLS
EDITORS

Nova Science Publishers, Inc.
Commack, New York

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	xi
PART ONE: The Region
Chapter 1 The Transformation of Central Europe: An Historical Perspective Daniel Stone	1
Chapter 2 Transition Economies: A Temporal Comparative Analysis Sohrab Abizadeh	31
Chapter 3 The Economic Progress of Selected Transition Economies Karen S. Vorst	69
Chapter 4 The Economics of Mass Media: Western World Experience and Central and Eastern European Exigencies Sohrab Abizadeh	85
Chapter 5 The Information Society Model: Does It Shed Light on Central and Eastern European Transition? Joel Novak	109
PART TWO: Country Cases
Chapter 6 The Czech Experience of the Initiation of Educational Change Since 1989: Is a North American Model Applicable? Annabelle Mays, Eleoussa Polyzoi and Sheena Gardner	127
Chapter 7 The Status of Women's Employment in Poland Willadee Wehmeyer	145
Chapter 8 The Emerging Market Economy in Slovak Republic Karen S. Vorst.	171
Chapter 9 Ernest Gellner, Civil Society and Freedom of the Press in Czech Republic Allen Mills	185
About the Authors and Contributors	205
Index	209