COUNTRIES AND CONCEPTS

AN INTRODUCTION TO COMPARATIVE POLITICS

Michael G. Roskin
Lycoming College

PRENTICE HALL, UPPER SADDLE RIVER, NEW JERSEY 07458
CONTENTS

A NOTE TO INSTRUCTORS  xxii

CHAPTER 1  WHAT TO LOOK FOR  1

Looking for Quarrels  1
The Structure of This Book  2
The Impact of the Past  3
  • The Five Crises of Nation Building  5
The Key Institutions  6
  • Left, Right, and Center  6  • What about Names and Dates?  7
Political Attitudes  8
  • Parliamentary versus Presidential Systems  9  • The Civic
    Culture Study  10  • What Is “Ideology”?  11
Patterns of Interaction  12
  • The Politics of Social Cleavages  13  • How Important Is the European Union?  14
What People Quarrel About  15
  • The Importance of Being Comparative  16
Vocabulary Building  16
Further Reference  17

PART I  GREAT BRITAIN  19

CHAPTER 2  BRITAIN: THE IMPACT OF THE PAST  20

  • The United Kingdom  21  • Britain’s French Legacy  22
Magna Carta  22
  • The Common Law  23
The Rise of Parliament  23
CONTENTS

Henry VIII 24
Parliament versus King 25
  • Premature Democrats 25 • Acton's Dictum 26
Cromwell's Commonwealth 26
The "Glorious Revolution" 26
The Rise of the Prime Minister 27
The Democratization of Parliament 27
  • Conservative Geniuses: Burke and Disraeli 29
The Rise of the Welfare State 29
  • Comparing: The Genesis of Two Welfare States 30
Vocabulary Building 31
Further Reference 31

CHAPTER 3  BRITAIN: THE KEY INSTITUTIONS  32

The Monarch 32
  • Comparing: The Last Political Monarch 34
The Cabinet 34
  • The Queen Chooses a New Prime Minister 35
The Prime Minister 37
  • Tony Blair: A British Clinton? 37
The Commons 38
  • The Deceptive No. 10 Downing Street 39
How the Commons Works 40
  • How Much Are Parliamentarians Paid? 40 • What to Do with Lords? 42
The Parties 43
  • Two-Party Systems: Variations on a British Theme 43
Vocabulary Building 45
Further Reference 45

CHAPTER 4  BRITISH POLITICAL ATTITUDES  46

"Public" Schools 47
  • What to Do with "Public" Schools? 47
"Oxbridge" 48
Class and Voting 48
The Deferential British? 49
  • The 1997 Elections: Class Plus Region 50
British Civility 50
Pragmatism 51
  • Football Hooliganism 51 • The Shape of the British Electorate 52
CONTENTS

Traditions and Symbols 53
Legitimacy and Authority 53
The Ulster Ulcer 54
   • The IRA: Ballots and Bullets 55
A Changing Political Culture 55
Vocabulary Building 56
Further Reference 56

CHAPTER 5  BRITAIN: PATTERNS OF INTERACTION 57
   • 1997: Finally, Labour 58
National and Local Party 58
Politics within the Parties 59
   • The Struggle of the Liberal Democrats 60
   • Saving Labour from the Unions 61
   • The “Poll Tax” Issue 62
Parties and Interest Groups 62
The Parties Face Each Other 63
   • The Profumo Scandal 64
The Cabinet and the Civil Servants 64
   • The Utility of Dignity 65
   • Treasury: The Real Power 66
The Civil Service and Interest Groups 66
What about Democracy? 67
Vocabulary Building 68
Further Reference 68

CHAPTER 6  WHAT BRITONS QUARREL ABOUT 69
The “British Disease” 69
   • “Pluralistic Stagnation” 70
The Thatcher Cure 70
   • The Flip Side of the Welfare State 71
   • Comparing: The Productivity Race 72
   • Comparing: Thatchernomics and Reaginomics 73
   • The Trouble with National Health 74
Scottish and Welsh Nationalism 74
   • What to Do with Northern Ireland? 76
British Racism 77
Britain and Europe 78
   • Britain’s Education Dilemma 79
Great Britain or Little England? 80
Vocabulary Building 80
Further Reference 81
PART II  FRANCE  83

CHAPTER 7  FRANCE: THE IMPACT OF THE PAST  84

The Roman Influence  84
The Rise of French Absolutism  85
  - Great French Expressions: “Paris Is Worth a Mass”  85
Louis XIV: The High Point of Absolutism  86
Why the French Revolution?  86
From Freedom to Tyranny  88
  - A Tale of Two Flags  89  - The Original Chauvinist  90
The Bourbon Restoration  90
  - A Theory of Revolution  91  - Great French Expressions: “They Learned Nothing and They Forgot Nothing”  92
The Third Republic  92
Vichy: France Splits Again  93
  - The Dreyfus Affair  93
The Fourth Republic  94
Vocabulary Building  95
Further Reference  95

CHAPTER 8  FRANCE: THE KEY INSTITUTIONS  96

A Semipresidential System  96
  - Parliamentary versus Presidential Systems  97  - Great French Expressions: Cohabitation  99  - The Presidential Election of 1995  100
Premier and Cabinet  100
  - A Gaullist Technocrat as President  101  - Great French Expressions: “Plus ça change, plus c’est la même chose”  103
The National Assembly  103
  - Comparing: The Israeli Parliamentary System  104  - A Senate That Fights Back  105
The Party System  105
A Decentralized Unitary System  108
Vocabulary Building  109
Further Reference  109
CHAPTER 9  FRENCH POLITICAL ATTITUDES  111
  ◆ How to Celebrate a 200-Year-Old Revolution  112
Historical Roots of French Attitudes  112
A Climate of Mistrust  113
  ◆ “La Marseillaise”  113 ◆ Great French Expressions: “L’enfer, c’est les autres”  114
The Nasty Split  114
  ◆ French and American Party Identification  115 ◆ Comparing: The Instability of Split Societies  116
School for Grinds  116
The “Great Schools”  118
  ◆ How Would You Do on the “Bac”?  119 ◆ Rule of the Enarchs  120
The Fear of “Face to Face”  120
Freedom or Authority?  121
  ◆ Comparing: French and American Press Conferences  121
Social Class  122
The Great Calming Down  122
  ◆ Great French Expressions: “The Heart Is on the Left, but the Billfold Is on the Right”  123 ◆ The French Turn Centrist  124
Vocabulary Building  125
Further Reference  125

CHAPTER 10  FRANCE: PATTERNS OF INTERACTION  126
The Emerging Party System  127
The Socialists and the Communists  127
  ◆ The French Left: Smother Thy Brother  128
The Gaullists and Republicans  129
  ◆ Mitterrand Skunks Chirac  130 ◆ Balladur Upstages Mitterrand  131
The Stalemate Cycle  131
  ◆ The Events of May 1968  132
Referendum Madness  133
  ◆ Boring! Boring! No New Faces  135
Fragmented Labor Unions  135
  ◆ Business and the Bureaucracy  136 ◆ “Putting on the Slippers”  137
The Eternal Bureaucracy  137
  ◆ The Real Power: The Inspection  138
Government by Bureaucracy  139
Chapter 11  What the French Quarrel About  141

• Nukes, French Style  142
Big Guys versus Little Guys  142
  • The Poujadists: A Classic Flash Party  143
The Nationalization Question  144
  • The Concorde: A Prestigious Dinosaur  145
The Unemployment Horror  146
  • Comparing: Europe Adopts U.S.-Style Conservatism  146
  • Is There a VAT in Your Future?  147
France's Racial Problem  148
  • The National Front: The Angry Party  149
France's Education Problems  149
The Covering Up of Things Past  150
  • Comparing: How U.S. and French Youth Handle the School Problem  150

Part III  Germany  153

Chapter 12  Germany: The Impact of the Past  154

Who Are the Germans?  154
The Fragmented Nation  155
  • The Changing Shape of Germany  156  • Impressive German Words: Obrigkeit  158
The Rise of Prussia  158
German Nationalism  159
  • Impressive German Words: Machtstaat  • Impressive German Words: Volksgeist  160
The Second Reich  160
  • Bismarck's Dubious Legacy  161  • Impressive German Words: Kulturkampf  162
The Catastrophe: World War I  162
Republic without Democrats  163
  • Impressive German Words: Dolchstoss  163  • The Horrors of Polarized Pluralism  164  • Impressive German Words: Gleichschaltung  165
  • Impressive German Words: Lebensraum  166
CONTENTS

The Third Reich 166
  • Might Have Been: The Plot to Kill Hitler 167  • Another Tale of Two Flags 168
The Occupation 168
Vocabulary Building 169
Further Reference 169

CHAPTER 13  GERMANY: THE KEY INSTITUTIONS  170

The President 170
  • Impressive German Words: Bundesrepublik 171
The Chancellor 171
  • Impressive German Words: Grundgesetz 172
The Cabinet 172
  • Der Alte: Adenauer 173
  • Helmut Kohl: The Underestimated Chancellor 174
The Bundestag 175
  • The Grand Coalition: A Dangerous Experiment 175
The Constitutional Court 177
  • The Bundesrat: A Useful Upper House 178
The Parties 178
  • Impressive German Words: Regierungsfähig 179  • Comparing: Germany’s Electoral System: An Export Product 180
A Split Electoral System 180
  • “You Have Two Votes”: A German Ballot 181  • 1994: A Modified PR System in Action 182
Vocabulary Building 183
Further Reference 183

CHAPTER 14  GERMAN POLITICAL ATTITUDES  184

The Moral Vacuum 185
  • Impressive German Words: Gehorsamkeit 185  • Impressive German Words: Vergangenheitsbewältigung 186
Forgetting the Past 186
  • The Rise of “Postmaterialism” 187  • A German “Generation X”? 188
The Generation Gap 188
A New German Democracy 189
  • Germany's Nationalistic “New Right” 190
The Disorienting Unification 190
  • Willy Brandt: A German Mr. Clean 191
The End of Shell Shock 192
  ◆ Impressive German Words: Politikverdrossenheit 193
The German Political Elite 193
The German Split Personality 194
  ◆ Impressive German Words: Sehnsucht and Streben 194
Vocabulary Building 195
Further Reference 195

CHAPTER 15  GERMANY: PATTERNS OF INTERACTION 196

More Complex, Less Stable 196
Parties and the Electorate 196
  ◆ Germany’s Possible Coalitions 197 ◆ The Shape of the German Electorate 198 ◆ Unhappy on the Left: The Jusos 199
The Chancellor and the Electorate 200
  ◆ Thunder on the Right: CSU 200
German Dealignment?
  ◆ Impressive German Words: Weltanschauung 201
German Dealignment? 201
  ◆ The “Catchall” Party 202 ◆ Movable Mayors 203
The Bundestag and the Citizen 203
The Union-Party Linkup 204
  ◆ Boring! Boring! Politics without Passion 204 ◆ Impressive German Words: Spitzenverband 205
The Länder and Berlin 206
German Voting Patterns 207
Vocabulary Building 208
Further Reference 208

CHAPTER 16  WHAT GERMANS QUARREL ABOUT 209

The End of the Miracle 209
  ◆ Impressive German Words: Wirtschaftswunder 210 ◆ Impressive German Words: Sozialmarkt 210 ◆ Impressive German Words: Mitbestimmung 211 ◆ Comparing: Who Wins the Manufacturing Race? 212
How to Merge Two Economies 212
  ◆ Impressive German Words: Ladenschlussgezetz 213 ◆ Could Unification Have Come Gradually? 214 ◆ How to Handle the Euro? 216
How Much Welfare? 217
- Comparing: Running Out of Germans 217
The Flood of Foreigners 218
- Impressive German Words: Gastarbeiter 219 - The Stasi Stain 220 - Impressive German Words: Waldsterben 221
A Fourth Reich? 221
Vocabulary Building 223
Further Reference 223

PART IV RUSSIA 225

CHAPTER 17 RUSSIA: THE IMPACT OF THE PAST 226

The Slavic People 226
- Memorable Russian Slogans: "Moscow Is the Third Rome" 227
Russian Autocracy 228
Absolutism or Anarchy? 228
- State Plus Church: "Caesaropapism" 229
Forced Modernization 229
Westernizers and Slavophiles 230
From Frustration to Revolution 230
- Premature Democrats: The Decembrists 231
Marxism Comes to Russia 231
- A Russian Genius: Lenin 232
- One City, Three Names 233
Curtain Raiser: The 1905 Revolution 234
- Memorable Russian Slogans: "Bread, Land, Peace" 234 - Kerensky: Nice Guys Lose 235
World War I and Collapse 235
- Memorable Russian Slogans: "All Power to the Soviets" 236 - Why the October Revolution Was in November 237
The Revolution and Civil War 237
- Memorable Russian Slogans: "He Who Does Not Work, Neither Shall He Eat" 238
War Communism and NEP 238
- Yet Another Tale of Two Flags 239 - Stalin: "One Death Is a Tragedy; a Million Is a Statistic" 240
Vocabulary Building 242
Further Reference 242
CHAPTER 18 RUSSIA: THE KEY INSTITUTIONS 243

The Stalin System 243
- Memorable Russian Slogans: "The Communist Party Is Not a Party Like Other Parties" 244
- Government in a Fortress 245

The New System 247
- The KGB 247
- 1991: The Coup That Failed 248
- Yeltsin: A Cautious Reformer 250
- 1993: The Second Coup That Failed 251
- Russia's 1996 Presidential Elections 252
- The Russian Elections of 1995: A Fragmented Party System 253

The Persistence of Pattern 254
- The Once and Future KGB 254

Vocabulary Building 255
Further Reference 255

CHAPTER 19 RUSSIAN POLITICAL ATTITUDES 256

The Russian Difference 256
- Huntington's "Civilizational" Divide in Europe 257
- Solzhenitsyn: Russian Mysticism 258

The Mask of Legitimacy 259

The Illusion of Ideology 259
- How to Build a Civil Society: The Philosophical Gap 260

The Rediscovery of Civil Society 261
- How to Build a Civil Society: The Moral Gap 262

Natural Egalitarians? 262

Russian Racism 263
- How to Build a Civil Society: The Economic Gap 264

Can a Democratic Political Culture Be Learned? 264
- How to Build a Civil Society: The Legal Gap 265

Vocabulary Building 266
Further Reference 266

CHAPTER 20 RUSSIA: PATTERNS OF INTERACTION 267

Reformers versus Conservatives 267
- Khrushchev: The First Reformer 268
- Totalitarian versus Authoritarian 270

President versus Parliament 270
- Gorbachev: "Life Punishes Those Who Delay" 271
- Centrist Reformer: Prime Minister Chernomyrdin 272
- Comparing: The Timing of Reforms 273
The Mafia 274
  • Remembering the Marshal 274
The Army 275
  • The Next Russian Strongman? Ex-General Lebed 276
Vocabulary Building 277
Further Reference 277

CHAPTER 21 WHAT RUSSIANS QUARREL ABOUT 278

Why the Soviet Union Collapsed 278
How to Reform? 279
  • Economic Goods versus Economic Bads 279
The Pace and Pain of Economic Reform 280
  • Why Did We Fail to Anticipate? 281  • Lacking Facts, They Theorized 282
Recover the Lost Republics? 283
  • The Terminology of Economic Reform 284  • The Horror of Chechnya 285  • Comparing: Yugoslavia: A Miniature Soviet Union? 286
A Middle Way for Socialism? 287
  • The Horror of Russian Health 287  • Comparing: Scandinavian-Type Socialism for the Soviet Union? 288
Which Way Russia? 288
Vocabulary Building 289
Further Reference 289

PART V JAPAN 291

CHAPTER 22 JAPAN: THE IMPACT OF THE PAST 292

Japanese Feudalism 293
  • Comparing: The Uniqueness Trap 293  • Comparing: Japan and Britain 294
The European Jolt 294
The Forced Entry 295
The 1868 Meiji Restoration 296
  • The Japanese Model of Industrialization? 297
The Path to War 297
The Great Pacific War 298
  • The United States and Japan: Collision in the Pacific 299  • Japanese Understatement: "The War Has Not Gone So Well" 300
Up from the Ashes 300
Vocabulary Building 301
Further Reference 301

CHAPTER 23  JAPAN: THE KEY INSTITUTIONS 302
The Monarchy 302
The Diet 302
◆ Comparing: Deference to Monarchs 303◆ A Woman Speaker for Japan's Diet 304
Prime Minister 305
◆ Fill in the Blanks: A Generic Prime Minister 307
Parties 307
◆ Comparing: The LDP and Italy's DC 308
Japan's Electoral System 309
◆ The 1996 Elections: A New Hybrid System in Action 310
The Ministries 311
Japanese Territorial Organization 312
Vocabulary Building 313
Further Reference 313

CHAPTER 24  JAPANESE POLITICAL ATTITUDES 314
◆ Comparing: Guilt versus Shame 315◆ The United States and Japan: Destined to Misunderstand? 316
The Cult of the Group 316
◆ The United States and Japan: Managing Differences 318
Education for Grinds 318
Death of a Sarariman 320
◆ The United States and Japan: The Minamata Pietà 321
Political Suicide 322
◆ Japanese Understatement: Sorry for the "Inconvenience" 322◆ The Honor of On 323
The "New Human Race" 323
◆ Comparing: Changing Political Cultures of Germany and Japan 324
Vocabulary Building 324
Further Reference 325
CHAPTER 25  JAPAN: PATTERNS OF INTERACTION  326

Bureaucrats in Command  327
  ♦ Japan’s Major Interest Groups  327  ♦ Comparing: Bureaucratic Elites in France and Japan  328  ♦ The United States and Japan: An American
    DITI?  329  ♦ The Big Three of Japanese Scandals  330
Corruption Scandals  330
  ♦ Comparing: Can “Money Politics” Be Broken?  331
No One in Charge?  332
The Dangers of Multiparty Coalitions  333
The Hopes of Reform  335
Vocabulary Building  336
Further Reference  336

CHAPTER 26  WHAT JAPANESE QUARREL ABOUT  337

The Japanese Economic Miracle  337
  ♦ Japan Destroys the German Photo Industry  338
The Secret of Japan’s Success  338
  ♦ Equality Works  340
From Success to Failure  341
  ♦ Japanese Understatement: “Japan Has a Trade Surplus”  341  ♦ Purchasing
    Power Parity  342  ♦ Silly Excuses to Exclude Foreign Goods  343  ♦ Poor
    Man’s PPP: The Big Mac Index  344
Should Japanese Live Better?  344
Could Japan Turn Aggressive?  345
  ♦ Repeal Article 9?  346
A New Japan?  347
  ♦ The Japanese Non-Welfare State  347
Vocabulary Building  348
Further Reference  348

PART VI  THE THIRD WORLD  350
  ♦ What Is the Third World?  352

CHAPTER 27  CHINA  353

The Impact of the Past  353
  A Traditional Political System  353
The Long Collapse 355
- Confucianism: Government by Right Thinking 355 - Cyclical versus Secular Change 356
From Empire to Republic 357
The Communist Triumph 358
- Mao and Guerilla War 359

The Key Institutions 360
The Soviet Parallel 360
- Tandem Power: Mao and Zhou 361 - The Invisible Puppeteer: Deng Xiaoping 362
The Party 363
The Army 363
- Tandem Power Continues 364

Chinese Political Attitudes 365
Traditional Attitudes 365
- Reverence for Age 366
Nationalism 367
Maoism 367
- Slogans from the Cultural Revolution 368
Concealed Anger 369
- Big Lie and Little Whisper 369

Patterns of Interaction 371
Cycles of Upheaval 371
Radicals and Moderates 371
- The Great Leap Forward: “Twenty Years in a Day” 372 - The Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution: “Bombard the Command Post” 373
Chinese Liberal and Conservative Politics 374
The Underlying Problem 375
- Anti-Western Campaigns 375 - The Tienanmen Massacre 376

What Chinese Quarrel About 377
A Market Economy for China? 377
- The Trouble with Markets 378
A Middle Way for the Middle Kingdom? 379
- How Many Chinese? 380
Do Markets Lead to Democracy? 381
- The Hong Kong Problem 382
Dissent and Democracy 383
Vocabulary Building 383
Further Reference 384
CHAPTER 28  BRAZIL  385

The Impact of the Past  385
The Portuguese Influence  385
A Painless Independence  387
From Empire to Republic  388
The Old Republic  389
  ♦ "Order and Progress"  389 ♦ The Addiction of Statism  390
Vargas's "New State"  390
The Rise and Fall of Jango Goulart  391

The Key Institutions  392
The Military as Political Institution  392
  ♦ Brazil's Powerful Military School  393 ♦ The President Who Never Was  394
The Presidency  394
  ♦ Comparing: Spain Turns Democratic  395
A New Democratic Constitution  396
An Emerging Party System  396
  ♦ The 1994 Election: The Inflation Connection  397
A Lack of Institutions  398

Brazilian Political Attitudes  399
The Easygoing Image  399
  ♦ Personalismo and Machismo  400
Brazilian Racism  400
  ♦ Comparing: Apartheid, Brazilian Style  401
Brazil's Poor: Passive or Explosive?  402
  ♦ Marginals in Brazil's Favelas  402
Uneven Democratic Attitudes  403
  ♦ Latin America's Changing Leftists  404

Patterns of Interaction  405
An Elite Game  405
The Mobilization-Demobilization Cycle  405
  ♦ Political Mobilization, Brazilian Style  406
The Inflation Connection  407
  ♦ "Praetorianism"  407 ♦ Brazil's Desperate Struggle against Inflation  408
The Corruption Connection  408
Resurgent Interest Groups  409
  ♦ The Brazilian Political Cycle  409
The Church as Opposition  410
• Chico Mendes: Another Death in the Amazon 411

What Brazilians Quarril About 412
How to Make a Second Brazilian Miracle 412
• “They Got an Awful Lot of Everything in Brazil” 412 • Headed for Extinction: Brazil’s Indians 413
Brazil’s State Capitalism 413
• Great Brazilian Wisecracks 414 • Great Brazilian Wisecracks 415
Growth for Whom? 415
The Population Problem 416
Will Brazilian Democracy Last? 417
• Crime and Punishment, Brazilian Style 417
Vocabulary Building 418
Further Reference 418

Chapter 29 South Africa 420

The Impact of the Past 420
The Great Trek 421
• South Africa’s Population (in Millions) 422 • Dingaan’s Kraal: Still Remembered 423
The Boer War 423
From Defeat to Victory 424
• Why Did Apartheid End? 425

The Key Institutions 426
System in Flux 426
A Quasi-Presidential System 426
• South African Might-Have-Been: The Black and Coloured Vote 427
A Bicameral Parliament 427
• Nelson Mandela: A President for All South Africans 428
The Cabinet 429
• Comparing: How to Reform an Unjust System? 430
The Parties 431
• A Constitutional Court for South Africa 431 • Beware the Confusion: South Africa’s Two “National” Parties 432 • 1994: A New Proportional Representation System in Action 433 • Home for Four Million People? 434
Farewell to the Homelands 435

South African Political Attitudes 435
The Africans 435
The Afrikaners 436
• From Euphoria to Dysphoria 436 • A Lost Generation of African Youth 437 • Do Afrikaners Change? 438
The English Speakers 438
The Browns 439
• South African Might-Have-Been: If the English Had Retained Power 439

Patterns of Interaction 440
Politics within the ANC 440
• Why Do Plural Societies Cohere? “Cross-Cutting Cleavages” 441
The ANC and the Whites 441
• Why Do Plural Societies Cohere? “Consociational Democracy” 442
The ANC versus Inkatha 443
• South Africa’s Bloodshed: Whose Fault? 443 • New Player: COSATU 444
An Emerging Party System 444
Harvest of Hatred 446

What South Africans Quarrel About 446
How to Manage a Revolution 446
• How Much Truth Can South Africa Take? 447 • Favelas in South Africa? 448
Capitalism for South Africa? 448
The Brazilianization of South Africa? 449
Which Way for South Africa? 450
• A Separate KwaZulu? 450 • Who Can Replace Mandela? 451
Vocabulary Building 451
Further Reference 452

CHAPTER 30 IRAN 453

The Impact of the Past 453
The Arab Conquest 454
Western Penetration 454
The First Pahlavi 455
• Comparing: Ataturk and Reza Shah 456
The Last Pahlavi 457
• The Big U.S. Mistake 457

The Key Institutions 459
A Theocracy 459
• Iran’s 1997 Presidential Election 460
Iran’s Executive 460
Iran’s Legislature 461
CONTENTS

• The Strange “Council of Guardians” 461
Emerging Parties? 462
A Partly Free System 463

Iranian Political Attitudes 463
• Is Islam Anti-Modern? 464 • Is Islamic “Fundamentalism” the Right Name? 466
Islam as a Political Ideology 466
Democracy and Authority 467
• Are Iranians Religious Fanatics? 467 • Islamic Modernization: The Silencing of Soroush 468
Persian Nationalism 468
• Sunni and Shia 469

Patterns of Interaction 470
Religion as a Political Tool 470
• Does Islam Discriminate against Women? 470
Radicals and Moderates in Iran 471
• The U.S. Embassy Takeover 472 • Saudi Arabia: The Next Iran? 473 • Mullahs versus Bazaaris 474
The Revolution Burns Out 475

What Iranians Quarrel About 476
Which Way for Iran’s Economy? 476
• How Many Iranians? 477 • Open Letter to Americans: Don’t Mess with Iran 478
The Veiled Debate on Islam 478
• Open Letter to Iranians: Don’t Mess with America 479 • A Fatwa on Rushdie 480
What Kind of Foreign Policy? 480
Do Revolutions End Badly? 481
Vocabulary Building 482
Further Reference 482

CHAPTER 31 LESSONS OF NINE COUNTRIES 483

GLOSSARY 489

INDEX 497