CONTENTS

List of illustrations  page ix
Preface  xii

1  Mexico in perspective  1
   Nationalism and territory  3
   Living with the USA  7
   The border  10
   Drug trafficking  14
   Indigenous Mexico  18

2  The pre-Columbian era  24
   The Olmecs  24
   Monte Albán and the Zapotec cultures of Oaxaca  28
   The Mayas  32
   Teotihuacan  36
   The north  40
   The time of troubles, 750–950  40
   The Toltecs  41
   The Post-Classic Maya  43
   The Zapotecs and Mixtecs of the Post-Classic era  45
   Central Mexico  47
   The Aztecs  48

3  The European incursion, (1519–1620)  58
   The impact of the fall of Tenochtitlán  59
   The imposition of Christianity  64
Hispanic land acquisition 76

4 New Spain, 1620–1770: Spanish colonialism and American society 80
Spain and the Empire: merchants, financiers, and markets 81
Indian communities 90
New Spain's Baroque culture 92
The cult of the Virgin 102
The exposed north and far north 105
The political processes 108

5 Destabilisation and fragmentation, 1770–1867 112
Part one: the climax and collapse of New Spain, 1770–1821 115
Part two: the failures and successes of a newly sovereign state, 1821–1867 143

6 Reconstruction, 1867–1940 177
Part one: the Liberal republic: constitutionalism or personal rule, 1867–1911? 180
Part two: the revolutionary system: state power or democratisation, 1911–1940? 209

7 The monopoly party, 1940–2000 249
Part one: the 'Mexican miracle' and political control, 1940–1970 251
Part two: economic crises and political divisions, 1970–2000 272
Final comments 306

Bibliography 310
Index 316