RECOVERY FROM ARMED CONFLICT IN DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

Edited by Geoff Harris

London and New York
CONTENTS

List of illustrations xiii
Notes on contributors xiv
Preface xvi
Abbreviations xviii

PART 1
The need for recovery 1

1 Armed conflict in developing countries: extent, nature and causes 3
GEOFF HARRIS AND NERYL LEWIS

The extent and nature of armed conflict 3
The causes of war in developing countries 7
Conclusion 11
Bibliography 11

2 The costs of armed conflict in developing countries 12
GEOFF HARRIS

Introduction 12
Estimating the costs of war: the economists' approach 13
Stewart's model 15
A framework for analysis 16
Two case studies 18
Conclusion 26
Notes 26
Bibliography 26
CONTENTS

3 Structural violence, positive peace and peacebuilding 29
GEOFF HARRIS AND NERYL LEWIS

Structural violence 29
Positive peace 32
Post-conflict peacebuilding 32
Conclusion 35
Bibliography 35

PART 2
Issues of reconstruction and recovery 37

4 Reconstruction, recovery and development: the main tasks 39
GEOFF HARRIS

How wars end 39
Characteristics of post-conflict situations 40
The transition from war to peace 42
The phases and tasks of reconstruction and recovery 44
Other recovery issues 45
Bibliography 50

5 Economic reconstruction and recovery 52
GEOFF HARRIS AND NERYL LEWIS

Introduction 52
Government versus the market in recovery 53
Major economic recovery tasks 53
The peace dividend 55
Key issues in economic recovery 56
Structural adjustment and stabilisation programmes 61
Conclusion 62
Bibliography 63

6 The tasks of political recovery 65
NERYL LEWIS

Introduction 65
The restoration and/or creation of political structures 66
Reform measures 74
National reconciliation 77
CONTENTS

10 Women and children in the recovery process 166
   NERYL LEWIS
   Women and war 166
   Children and war 171
   Child soldiers 178
   Street children 183
   Disabled children 184
   Unaccompanied children and family tracing 185
   Bibliography 187

11 Refugees and the internally displaced 189
   NERYL LEWIS
   Introduction 189
   Refugee repatriation 190
   Monitoring the safety of returnees 195
   Aid and assistance for returnees 196
   Economic reintegration 197
   Social reintegration 201
   Bibliography 202

12 The centrality of community-led recovery 204
   REBECCA SPENCE
   Introduction 204
   Acquiescence 204
   Resistance 206
   Visioning new futures 207
   When the fighting stops 209
   Agents of recovery 210
   Conclusion 220
   Notes 220
   Bibliography 221

PART 3
Country case studies 223

13 Reconstructing Afghanistan: opportunities and challenges 225
   WILLIAM MALEY
   Introduction 225
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Contents</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Background 226</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Seven effects of the war 230</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Agents of recovery 237</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Obstacles to recovery 244</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conclusion 247</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bibliography 249</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| 14 Angola: can structural adjustment lead to peace? 258                 |   |
| Khabele Matlosa                                                         |   |
| Introduction 258                                                        |   |
| Background 258                                                          |   |
| The costs of the war 260                                                 |   |
| A recovery programme 262                                                |   |
| Prospects for a negotiated settlement 263                                |   |
| Conclusion 268                                                          |   |
| Bibliography 269                                                        |   |

| 15 Cambodia: a question of unity 272                                     |   |
| Peter Bartu                                                             |   |
| Introduction 272                                                        |   |
| Costs of the war 275                                                    |   |
| The nature of the agreements 276                                        |   |
| Self-determination and national reconciliation 276                      |   |
| The end of the war 279                                                  |   |
| UNTAC: shortfalls and failures 280                                      |   |
| Economic recovery 282                                                   |   |
| Political recovery 286                                                  |   |
| Longer-term prospects for Cambodia 288                                  |   |
| Epilogue 290                                                            |   |
| Bibliography 292                                                        |   |

| 16 South Africa's peace settlement: miracle or mirage? 296              |   |
| Gavin Cawthra                                                           |   |
| Introduction 296                                                        |   |
| The origins of the conflict 296                                         |   |
| The end game 298                                                        |   |
| Pathologies of apartheid 300                                             |   |
| Political and criminal violence 300                                     |   |
| Ethno-nationalism 302                                                   |   |
CONTENTS

Economic and social challenges 304
Establishing peace 305
Reconstruction and development 308
National reconciliation and nation-building 309
Integration and transformation of the armed forces 311
Truth and reconciliation 312
Conclusion 313
Bibliography 314

17 The problems of post-conflict recovery and reconstruction in Sri Lanka 317
SUMANASIRI LIYANAGE

Introduction 317
Country profile 318
Underlying causes of the conflict 318
The cost of the ethnic war 319
Three intervals of peace 321
The tasks of recovery and reconstruction 324
Conclusion 327
Postscript 328
Notes 329
Bibliography 330

Index 332