ECONOMIC CASUALTIES

How U.S. Foreign Policy Undermines Trade, Growth, and Liberty

defined by Solveig Singleton and Daniel T. Griswold

CATO INSTITUTE
Washington, D.C.
Contents

Preface vii

Introduction
Solveig Singleton, Daniel T. Griswold ix

Part I Overview: The Economic Cost of U.S. Foreign Policy
1. Eagle in the China Shop: The Economic Consequences of U.S. Global Meddling
   Ted Galen Carpenter 3
2. An Overview of the Economic Costs of Unilateral Trade Sanctions
   William H. Lash III 13
3. Defending Liberty in a Global Economy
   Richard B. Cheney 19

Part II Export Controls
4. Export Controls: A National Emergency?
   James B. Burnham 31
5. An Export Control Agenda for the 21st Century
   William A. Reinsch 39
6. Export Controls, Trade Sanctions, and the Nuclear Industry
   R. Ian Butterfield 47
7. Myths and Realities of the Debate over Encryption Policy
   Carl Ellison 53
PART III  CONTROLLING THE FLOW OF CAPITAL
8. Effects of the Regulatory Suppression of Digital Cash
   Eric Hughes 63
9. America the Financial Imperialist
   Richard W. Rahn 77

PART IV  TRADE SANCTIONS
10. Unilateral Sanctions: A Politically Attractive Loser
    Clayton Yeutter 85
11. Economic Sanctions: America's Folly
    Gary C. Hufbauer 91
12. Caterpillar Inc.: A Case Study in America's CAT-astrophic Sanctions Policy
    William C. Lane 95

PART V  HUMAN RIGHTS AND CIVIL LIBERTIES
    Robert A. Sirico 103
14. The Costs of Encryption Export Controls: What about Our Constitutional Values?
    Kenneth C. Bass III 113

INDEX  119