Contents

Dedication xi
In Memoriam xiii
Acknowledgments xv

Introduction
Modernism and Its Margins:
Rescripting Hispanic Modernism
Anthony L. Geist and José B. Monleón xvii

Part 1 The Problematics of Modernism

Chapter 1
On Modernism from the Periphery
Carlos Blanco Aguinaga 3

Chapter 2
The Industrial Imaginary of Modernity:
The “Totalizing” Gaze
Iris M. Zavala 17

Chapter 3
A Modernization That Holds Us Back:
Culture under the Neoconservative Regression
Néstor García Canclini 34

Chapter 4
Rethinking the Theory of the Avant-Garde
from the Periphery
George Yúdice 52

Chapter 5
The Limits of Modernity in Latin American Poetry
Álvaro Salvador 81

Chapter 6
“Seven Islands in Search of an Author”:
The Canary Islands Avant-Garde
Jacqueline Cruz 98
Part 2 Modernists from the Margins

Chapter 7
Gender and Modernist Discourse: Emilia Pardo Bazán’s Dulce Dueño
Susan Kirkpatrick 117

Chapter 8
Buñuel: A Cinematographic Impugnment of Modernity/Modernity/Avant-gardism and Other Options
Víctor Fuentes 140

Chapter 9
Recycling the Popular: Lorca, Lorquismo, and the Culture Industry
Anthony L. Geist 151

Chapter 10
Cultural Liaisons in American Literatures
Guido A. Podestá 168

Chapter 11
Brazilian Modernism: An Idea Out of Place?
Randal Johnson 186

Chapter 12
Counterhegemonic Subjectivities in César Vallejo and Oswald de Andrade
Leslie Bary 215

Chapter 13
Borges: Tradition and the Avant-Garde
Beatriz Sarlo 228

Chapter 14
“Dangerous Southern Islands”: Modern Aesthetics as Anaesthetics in Carpentier’s The Lost Steps and Borges’s “The South”
Santiago Colás 242

Chapter 15
El siglo de las luces: Modernism and Epic
Neil Larsen 260
Afterword
A Design for Modernity in the Margins
René Jara 277
Contributors 297
Index 303