Spain in an International Context, 1936-1959

Edited by

Christian Leitz

and

David J. Dunthorn

Berghahn Books
New York • Oxford
Contents

List of Abbreviations vii
Preface xi

1. Franco’s Foreign Policy 1939-1953 1
Paul Preston

2. Reaction in France to the Frente Popular (January to July 1936) 19
David Wingate Pike

3. The British Government and General Franco during the Spanish Civil War 41
Enrique Moradiellos

4. French Strategy and the Spanish Civil War 55
Peter Jackson

5. Soviet Foreign Policy and the Spanish Civil War, 1936-1939 81
Geoffrey Roberts

Martin S. Alexander

7. Germany’s Conception of Spain’s Strategic Importance, 1940-1941 129
Norman J.W. Goda
8. French Morocco-Spanish Morocco: Vichy French Strategic Planning against the 'Threat from the North', 1940-1942
   Martin Thomas

9. Programm Bär: The Supply of German War Material to Spain, 1943-1944
   Christian Leitz

10. The Degree of British Commitment to the Restoration of Democracy in Spain, 1939-1946
    Glyn Stone

    Qasim Ahmad

12. Stalin and Spain, 1944-1948
    Geoffrey Swain

13. Compromising with the Dictatorship: U.S.-Spanish Relations in the Late 1940s and Early 1950s
    Boris N. Liedtke

    José Luis Neila Hernández

15. Franco's Dreams of Autarky Shattered: Foreign Policy Aspects in the Run-up to the 1959 Change in Spanish Economic Strategy
    Angel Viñas

Select Bibliography

Index