Ideology in the Low Countries

Trends, Models and Lacunae

Hans De Witte and Peer Scheepers (Eds.)

Van Gorcum - 1999
Contents

1. Understanding ideological trends in Dutch society: Middendorp’s contributions
   Peer Scheepers, Peter Ester & Hans De Witte

2. Dr. C.P. Middendorp and the longitudinal study of attitudes
   Jos Becker

   Peer Scheepers, Manfred te Grotenhuis & Astrid Bosch

4. The intergenerational transmission of cultural and economic conservatism
   W. Vollebergh, J. Iedema & Q. Raaijmakers

5. On the occupational roots of conservatism: Expanding Middendorp’s analysis with the concepts of Rotter and Kohn
   Hans De Witte

6. Economic and cultural conservatism in Flanders: In search of concepts, determinants and impact on voting behaviour
   Hans De Witte & Jaak Billiet

7. Conservatism and values: A confrontation of Middendorp with Schwartz and Triandis
   Guy Van Gyes & Hans De Witte

8. Fixing left and right: Value orientations according to Middendorp and Inglehart
   Paul Dekker, Peter Ester & Andries van den Broek
9. Epilogue: Evaluating Middendorp's work in the light of the contributions to this volume 177
   Hans De Witte & Peer Scheepers

About the authors 189