Contents

Acknowledgements vii
List of plates ix

Introduction

1 The difference a generation makes 3

Part 1
Uneven geographical developments

2 The geography of the Manifesto 21
3 ‘Working Men of All Countries, Unite!’ 41
4 Contemporary globalization 53
5 Uneven geographical developments and universal rights 73

Part 2
On bodies and political persons in global space

6 The body as an accumulation strategy 97
7 Body politics and the struggle for a living wage 117

Part 3
The utopian moment

8 The spaces of Utopia 133
9 Dialectical utopianism 182

Part 4
Conversations on the plurality of alternatives

10 On architects, bees, and ‘species being’ 199
11 Responsibilities towards nature and human nature 213
12 The insurgent architect at work 233

Appendix: Edilia, or ‘Make of it what you will’ 257
Bibliography 282
Index 289