Of Centaurs and Doves

Guatemala's Peace Process

Susanne Jonas
University of California at Santa Cruz

Foreword by Sir Marrack Goulding

Westview
A Member of the Perseus Books Group (2000)
Contents

List of Illustrations xi
Foreword, by Sir Marrack Goulding xiii
Acknowledgments xvii

Prologue 1
The Emotional Roller Coaster, 1
December 1996: Vámonos, Patria, a Caminar, 6
Mid-1999: Guatephrenia, 10
The Project of This Book, 11
Centaurs and Doves, 11
Methodology: Binational and Multiperspective Constructions, 12
Lecturas or Readings of History, 15
Note, 16

1 Background: Guatemala's Thirty-Six-Year Civil War 17
Antecedents: U.S. Intervention and Its Aftermath, 18
Insurgency and Counterinsurgency in the 1970s–1980s, 21
Recomposition of the Counterinsurgency State and Return to Civilian Rule, 25
Social Crisis and Reemergence of Social Movements, 27
Context for Beginning a Peace Process, 30
A Note on Contested Issues Concerning the War, 32
Notes, 35

2 The Mined Road to Peace 37
1986–1990: Initial Dialogues, 39
Changed Chemistry in 1996: Arzú and the Endgame Dynamics, 50
Guatemalan Peace in the International Limelight, 57
Preliminary Lessons and Mines in the Road Ahead, 59
Notes, 61

3  The Terms of Peace
Democratization (July 1991), 69
Acuerdo Marco/Framework Accord (January 1994), 70
Comprehensive Accord on Human Rights (March 1994), 71
Resettlement of Population Groups Uprooted by Armed Conflict (June 1994), 73
Historical Clarification Commission (June 1994), 74
Identity and Rights of Indigenous Peoples (March 1995), 75
Social and Economic Aspects and Agrarian Situation (May 1996), 78
Strengthening of Civilian Power and Role of the Armed Forces in a Democratic Society (September 1996), 81
A Missing Accord: Women’s Rights, 86
The Operational Accords (December 1996), 87
  Definitive Cease-Fire, 88
  Constitutional Reforms and the Electoral Regime, 89
  Basis for the Legal Integration of the URNG, 89
  Timetable for the Peace Accords, 91
  A Firm and Lasting Peace, 92
Notes, 92

4  Can Peace Bring Democracy or Social Justice?
“De-Centaurization” and Other Gains for Democracy, 94
Democracy Without Adjectives, 99
  How Democratic Was Guatemala’s “Pacted Transition”? 99
  Dimensions of the Democratic Project, 106
  The Unresolved Question of Social Justice, 110
Notes, 113

5  The U.S. Role: The Cold War and Beyond
Dangerous Liaisons: U.S. Involvement in Guatemala’s War, 119
Mixed Messages from Washington During the Peace Process, 122
“Guategate”: The 1995 CIA Scandal, 124
Washington’s Agendas in Postwar Guatemala, 126
Truth and Consequences, 128
  March 1999: The Clinton Apology, 128
  Declassification: The Devil in the Details, 129
Broader Questions About “U.S. Interests,” 131
Notes, 133
6 Implementation Wars
Backdrop: Peace and Its Discontents, 139
   “Mincho” and the Balance of Forces in 1997, 141
Subtext of the Gerardi Assassination: Return of Political Violence in 1998? 146
Delays, Detours, and Near Derailments in Compliance, 147
   “Citizen Security” and the Army’s “New Missions,” 147
Militarization of the New Civilian National Police, 150
Delays in Reforming the Justice System, 152
Truth Commission: “Memory of Silence,"
   Memory of Genocide, 152
Indigenous Rights and Indigenous Protagonism, 158
Appendix, 161
Notes, 162

7 High Hopes and Stark Realities:
   Obstacles to Sustainable Development
Guatemala’s Window of Opportunity, 167
Tax (Non)Reform, 169
   Deconstructing the Debacle: Visible and
   Less Visible Players, 174
International Players and Peace Conditionality, 177
Land, Jobs, and Other Socioeconomic Issues, 180
Prognosis: Dysfunctional Development, 183
Appendix, 185
Notes, 186

8 The Hijacking of the Constitutional Reforms
The First Hijack Attempt, 189
Mitch, “Calamity,” and the Appearance of the Dinosaurs, 193
Dinosaurs and Centaurs Block La Avenida de las Reformas, 195
   “Balkanization” and Other Myths, 196
Predictions and Results, 198
Post-Consulta Postmortems, 200
   “No” to What? Major Factors in the Vote, 200
   Culture Clash: Contested Interpretations, 210
Notes, 213

Conclusion: “Reinvention” or Lost Opportunity?
   Global, Comparative, and Imaginary Perspectives
   Postwar Guatemala Faces Globalization, Neoliberalism, and Transnationalized Actors, 218
   Can the Peace Project Survive Neoliberalism? 222