Essays in Economic Globalization, Transnational Policies and Vulnerability

Edited by

Alexander Kouzmin
University of Western Sydney-Nepean, Australia

and

Andrew Hayne
University of Western Sydney-Nepean, Australia

IOS Press
Amsterdam • Berlin • Oxford • Tokyo • Washington, DC

International Institute of Administrative Sciences
Brussels
Contents

About IIAS v
Contributors vii
Brief Biographies of Co-Editors ix

Introduction: Globalization: Rhetorical Trends and Unpalatable Realities for Public Sectors, A. Kouzmin and A. Hayne 1

Government Vulnerability and Economic Misconduct: The International Challenge, S. Booth and S. Record 13

The Social Costs of Moving to “Lean Production”: A Canadian View of NAFTA, P. Warrian 31

Globalization of Market Ideology and its Impact on Third-World Development, S. Haque 75

Citizenship and Justice: Issues in Globalization, D. Grant 101

The Sources and Consequences of the Integration of Global Capital Markets, T. Valentine 113

Public Sector Response to International Labour Migration: The Case of the Overseas Contract Workers of the Philippines, J.N. Endriga 125

Migrations in the New Russia as a Problem of Social and Economic Globalization, I. Ushkalov and I. Malakha 141

Structural Transformation of the Global Political Economy, M.I.M. Al-Raddady 151

Contracting and Globalization: Implications for Governance, Policy Learning and Strategic Management, S. Cope 173

Communicating during Crises: From Bullhorn to Mass Media to High Technology to Organizational Networking, J. Garnett and A. Kouzmin 185

A Political Theory of Administrative Innovation, T. Gran 203

Structural Adjustment, Privatization and the Public Bureaucracy, A. Gupta 219

Author Index 227