The Basque Poetic Tradition

Translated by Linda White
Foreword by Linda White

University of Nevada Press  Reno & Las Vegas
CONTENTS

Foreword xi
Preface xv
Introduction 1

Chapter One Survey of Basque Poetry 9
Chapter Two Bertsolaritzaga and the Basque Diaspora 17
Chapter Three Pastorales 44
Chapter Four Bernard Detxepare—Medieval or Renaissance Writer? 52
Chapter Five Jose de Aristimuño, Alias “Aitzol”: A Martyr to the Basque Cause 60
Chapter Seven Jose Mari Agirre, Alias “Lizardi”: A Lyric Poet 98
Chapter Eight Esteban Urkiaga, Alias “Lauaxeta” (1905–1937): A Modern Poet of the Pre–Civil War Period 115
Chapter Nine Salbatore Mitxelena and Bitoriano Gandiaga: The Franciscan School 133
Chapter Ten Jon Mirande: A Nonconformist Writer 152
Chapter Eleven Gabriel Aresti: The Poetry of a Fighter 172
Chapter Twelve Juan Mari Lekuona: A Bridge Between Cultured Poetry and Popular Literature 183
Chapter Thirteen Marcel Jousse and Manuel Lekuona: Two Pioneers of Oral Literature 198

Notes 209
Bibliography 235
Index 249