Table of Contents

Foreword

Introduction
Pluriculturality – Concepts and Challenges

Pluriculturality, multiculturalism, interculturalism, transculturalism: Divergent or complementary concepts?
Sanjin Dragojevic
11

Re-thinking cultural linkages in Europe
Edmund A. van Trotsenburg
19

Part One
Pluriculturality and the Challenges for Europe

Diversity in unity
Rüdiger Stephan
33

Dealing with diversity – The example of the Council of Europe
Raymond Weber
39

Dialogue between the European Commission and the churches and religious communities
Thomas Jansen
47

Part Two
Pluriculturality – Dealing with Diversity

Language policy and pluriculturality: Is unilingualism compatible with diversity?
Ray Taras
55

Cultural diversity – A concept to re-invigorate international co-operation: The Canadian experience post-Stockholm
Lise Legault
75

A multicultural Italy
Melita Richter-Malabotta
81

Who are we? Assessing three debates on ethnic and religious plurality in Germany
Susanne Baier-Allen
89
Part Three
Pluriculturality and the Danger of Social Pathology

The Belfast Agreement of Good Friday 1998 and its implications for an ethnically divided region
Eberhard Bort

Jewish Bolshevism and the Americanisation of memory: A poststructural interpretation of the Holocaust
Ralph M. Leck

Part Four
Pluriculturality and its Educational Consequences

Le défi de l'éducation à la pluriculturalité en Europe
Bernard Ardura

Pluriculturality and education: Beyond the folklore of separation and the rhetoric of integration
Vedrana Spajić-Vrkaš

Multicultural education in Croatia – What does it mean?
Dubravka Poljak-Makaruha

Pluriculturality: On the margin between the cultural policy and educational practice
Lidia Varbanova and Anelia Dimitrova

Conclusion
Pluriculturality – New Directions

Bio-environment – bio-culture: The bio-political context of pluriculturality
Agni Vlavianos-Arvanitis

Contributors

Acronyms

Index