THE CENTENNIAL OF THE FIRST INTERNATIONAL PEACE CONFERENCE
REPORTS & CONCLUSIONS

edited and introduced by

Frits Kalshoven

KLUWER LAW INTERNATIONAL
THE HAGUE / LONDON / BOSTON
Contents

INTRODUCTION ................................................................. 1
by Frits KALSHOVEN

INTERNATIONAL LAW RELATING TO DISARMAMENT AND ARMS CONTROL ......................................................... 41 with special focus on verification and compliance
Revised report prepared for the Centennial of the First International Peace Conference
by Hans BLIX
Preface ................................................................. 41

The Report ................................................................. 44

I. Aims of the First Hague Peace Conference .............. 44
I.1 The peaceful settlement of disputes ............... 46
I.2 Humanitarian grounds for restrictions on means and methods of warfare ............... 50
I.3 The burden of armaments ...................... 54

II. Focus on the time after the First Hague Peace Conference ................................................................. 55
II.1 Realization of the aims of the Peace Conference regarding disarmament and arms control in today’s world ............... 57
II.2 The rationales of arms control and disarmament today ............... 57
II.3 Categories of arms control and disarmament treaties ............... 61
II.4 Actual arms control and disarmament achieved compared to stated aims ............... 96

III. The issue of verification .............................................. 104
III.1 Procedures, mechanisms and institutions for verification ............... 107

IV. Reflections on the future .............................................. 147
IV.1 Short term .............................................. 148
IV.2 Medium term .............................................. 151
IV.3 Long term .............................................. 152

V. Arms control and disarmament .............................................. 154
INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW

LAW OF WAR

Revised Report for the Centennial Commemoration of the First Hague Peace Conference 1899

by Christopher GREENWOOD

I. Introduction ................................................. 161

II. The Laws of War at the 1899 Peace Conference ........ 166

II.1 Background .................................................. 166

II.2 The Laws of War at the Conference ....................... 168

II.3 The 1907 Peace Conference and the Laws of War ........ 172

III. The Scope and Application of the Laws of War ......... 173

III.1 The Laws of War within the Structure of International Law ........ 173

III.2 The Scope of the Laws of War .......................... 192

IV. The Conduct of Hostilities in International Armed Conflicts ................................................. 201

IV.1 Entitlement to Combatant Status .......................... 202

IV.2 The Law of Weaponry ....................................... 206

IV.3 The Law of Targeting ...................................... 212

IV.4 The Law of Belligerent Occupation ........................ 216

IV.5 The Law of Naval Warfare .................................. 221

V. Internal Conflicts ........................................... 225

V.1 The Scope of Application of the Law on Internal Conflicts ................................................. 228

V.2 The Substantive Law Applicable to Internal Armed Conflicts ................................................. 233

V.3 Compliance with the Law of Internal Armed Conflict ................................................. 238

VI. Improving Compliance .................................... 241

VI.1 Peacetime Measures ......................................... 241

VI.2 The Protecting Powers and the Role of the International Committee of the Red Cross ........ 245

VI.3 The Fact-Finding Commission ............................... 246

VI.4 The Role of States and the United Nations ................ 247

VI.5 State Responsibility .......................................... 249

VI.6 Human Rights Mechanisms ................................. 251

VI.7 Prosecution of War Crimes ................................. 252

VII. Conclusions ................................................. 257
A changing international society

1. The transition from a Euro-centric society to the global society of the 21st century

2. The new structure of international law

3. Implications for dispute settlement mechanisms

A century of efforts to ensure the peaceful settlement of international disputes

1. Developing the available options

2. Methods of settlement

3. Systems of settlement

Innovation and privatization in dispute settlement arrangements: expanding the available options and the role of an Alternative Dispute Resolution mechanism

1. Evolving approaches to international dispute settlement

2. Reshaping traditional methods in a new international context

3. Emerging opportunities for international arbitration

4. Innovating in specialized fields of international law

5. Towards a global Alternative Dispute
   Resolution system

A central role for the ICJ in the new structure of international law

1. The evolving role of the ICJ

2. A new constitutional role for the ICJ: managing the evolving principles of international law

3. The issue of compulsory jurisdiction in the light of a new role of the ICJ

4. Expanding the advisory functions of the ICJ

5. Toward a greater role of the ICJ in institutionalized dispute settlement arrangements
| IV.6 | Broadening access to the ICJ .......... 365 |
| IV.7 | A Court of reference for international law . 367 |
| IV.8 | Proposals aiming at reducing the uncertainties of international law .......... 370 |
| V. | Dispute Settlement under the Charter of the United Nations .................................. 375 |
| VI. | New specialized courts and tribunals: some influences on the outlook for the ICJ .......... 383 |
| VI.1 | The Court's power of judicial review .......... 385 |
| VI.2 | Composition of the ICJ ...................... 393 |
| VI.3 | Facilities and services available to the ICJ .......... 398 |
| VII. | Continuity and Change in Dispute Settlement: Prospects for the 21st Century ................. 400 |
| VII.1 | A dispute-settlement system in harmony with the new structure of international law ........ 401 |
| VII.2 | Change and innovation in response to new needs ............................................ 402 |
| VII.3 | Establishing a special committee of independent legal experts .............. 403 |
| VII.4 | Ensuring the availability of options .......... 403 |
| VII.5 | Reducing uncertainty and risk .......... 405 |
| VII.6 | Exploring the prospects for conciliation .......... 406 |
| VIII. | Summary of Proposals ................................................. 410 |

THE HAGUE AGENDA
FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE FOR THE 21st CENTURY .......... 419
UN Document A/54/98/Annex
Preamble ............................................ 419
Themes ............................................. 421
Main Actions ......................................... 425

Report on the Conclusions
UN Document A/54/381 and Corr.1
I. GENERAL OBSERVATIONS ......................... 457
I.1 Introduction ..................................... 457
I.2 Discussions on the Centennial Themes .......... 458
I.3 Non-Governmental Participation ................. 464
I.4 General organizational matters ................. 465
II. CONCLUSIONS ON THE CENTENNIAL THEMES

II.1 Disarmament questions ............................................. 469
II.2 Humanitarian law and laws of war ..................... 476
II.3 Peaceful settlement of disputes ......................... 481

Annex ......................................................... 489
Reports, comments and speeches

OUTCOME OF THE ACTION DEDICATED TO THE 1999 CENTENNIAL OF THE FIRST INTERNATIONAL PEACE CONFERENCE ............................................. 503
United Nations General Assembly Resolution 54/27 of 17 November 1999

UNITED NATIONS DECADE OF INTERNATIONAL LAW ....... 509
United Nations General Assembly Resolution 54/28 of 17 November 1999