Top Down Policymaking

Thomas R. Dye
Florida State University and
The Lincoln Center for Public Service

CHATHAM HOUSE PUBLISHERS
SEVEN BRIDGES PRESS, LLC
NEW YORK • LONDON
Contents

Tables and Figures vi
Preface ix

1. Policymaking from the Top Down 1
   What Is Public Policy?, 2
   Who's on Top?, 3
   The Top-Down Policymaking Model, 4
   Feature: Elite Attitudes toward Citizen Policymaking, 8
   The Bottom-Up Policy Process Model, 10
   Feature: Citizen Attitudes toward Elite Policymaking, 12
   Democracy from the Top Down, 14

2. Power, Wealth, and Policymaking 16
   The Concentration of Economic Power, 17
   The Globalization of Economic Power, 20
   The Global Elite, 22
   Increasing Inequality in America, 25
   Feature: Deciding on Global Trade Policy, 27
   Inequality as a “Nondecision,” 31
   The Making of a Nondecision, 33
   Feature: Deciding to Grant Preferential Tax Treatment to Investors, 34

3. The Policy Formulation Process 39
   Top-Down Policy Formulation, 39
   The Foundations, 42
   Feature: The Ford Foundation, 44
   The Think Tanks, 47
   The Conservative Policy Network, 52
   Global Thinking: The Council on Foreign Relations and the Trilateral Commission, 57
   Coordinating Elite Policy Formulation, 61
CONTENTS

   Defining Policy Evaluation, 158
   Top-Down Policy Evaluation, 160
   Feature: What the Mass Public Thinks about Government Waste, 162
   Policy Evaluation by Governments, 163
   The Continuation of Failed Programs, 165
   Policy Evaluation by Elites, 166
   Feature: How to Explain Away Failed Policies, 167
   Politics and Policy Evaluation, 170
   Feature: Evaluation and Reform of Welfare Policy, 171

Notes 175
Index 179