

B 45122

Governing European Diversity

edited by Montserrat Guibernau

SAGE Publications
London • Thousand Oaks • New Delhi

in association with

Contents

PREFACES	ix
CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION: UNITY AND DIVERSITY IN EUROPE	1
Montserrat Guibernau
1 Introduction	1
2 The cultural frontiers of Europe: inclusion and exclusion	2
3 What divides Europeans?	14
4 What unites Europeans?	19
5 Self-organization and social regulation	27
6 Book contents and structure	31
References	33
Further reading	34
CHAPTER 2 THE RISE OF REGIONS AND REGIONALISM IN WESTERN EUROPE	35
James Anderson
1 Introduction	35
2 The diversity of regions and regionalisms	38
3 The growth of regionalism and its causes	44
4 Regionalism in the EU	50
5 Toward a 'Europe of the Regions'?	55
6 Has the future already arrived?	59
7 Conclusion	61
References	62
Further reading	64
CHAPTER 3 MIGRANTS, REFUGEES AND CITIZENSHIP	65
Zig Layton-Henry
1 Introduction	65
2 The origins of post-war migration	69
3 The responses of Britain, France and Germany	72
4 Strategies for integration	73
5 Case study I: Britain	74

6	Case study II: France	80
7	Case study III: Germany	84
8	The challenge of managing diverse societies	90
9	The impact of the EU	97
10	Conclusion	100
	References	101
	Further reading	102

CHAPTER 4 SOCIAL MOVEMENTS IN EUROPE: THE RISE OF ENVIRONMENTAL GOVERNANCE 103

Mark J. Smith

1	Introduction	103
2	Social movements as self-organizing networks	104
3	Trade unions as social movements: 'you can't touch me I'm part of the union ...'	111
4	New social movements and the environment	121
5	Toward European eco-corporatism: the new environmental governance	130
6	Conclusion	134
	References	136
	Further reading	138

CHAPTER 5 THE TRANSFORMATION OF FAMILY^a LIFE AND SEXUAL POLITICS 139

Catherine Lloyd

1	Introduction	139
2	Recent trends in households and family life	141
3	What are the factors influencing these trends?	150
4	What do these changes tell us about governance?	157
5	Conclusion	164
	References	166
	Further reading	168

CHAPTER 6 WHAT UNITES EUROPEANS? 169

Josep R. Llobera

1	Introduction	169
2	Measuring European identity: the role of the Eurobarometer	173
3	Being in Europe, being European	176
4	The role of European élites in the unification of Europe	180
5	European identity	183
6	High culture and education in the making of Europe	184
7	Toward a European civil society?	188
8	The future of the EU	190
9	Conclusion	192
	References	193
	Further reading	194

CHAPTER 7 THE MEDIA IN EUROPE 195

Denis McQuail

1	Introduction	195
2	General aspects of media structure in Europe	196
3	The regulation of mass media in Europe	203
4	Trends and changes in European media	206
5	Issues of European cultural autonomy and dependency	210
6	National media policy in Europe	213
7	The media policies of the EU	215
8	Media at the European level?	218
9	Media and politics in Europe	220
10	Issues of language	222
11	Europe in the news	223
12	Conclusion	225
	References	227
	Further reading	228

CHAPTER 8 DRUGS AND EUROPEAN GOVERNANCE	229
Eugene McLaughlin and Karim Murji
1 Introduction	229
2 Assessing the state of drug use in Europe	231
3 Drug control and legal diversity within the EU	234
4 Governance from above: the international drug-control system	239
5 Governance from above: the European law-enforcement complex	242
6 Governance from below	247
7 Conclusion	256
References	257
Further reading	258
CHAPTER 9 CONCLUSION: ONE EUROPE? THE DEMOCRATIC GOVERNANCE OF A CONTINENT	259
Salvador Giner and Montserrat Guibernau
1 Introduction	259
2 Unity and diversity	261
3 On European citizenship	264
4 Toward a governable Europe?	265
5 Toward a European civil society?	267
6 The tradition of the new	269
7 From conflict to consensus	271
8 A conclusion	273
References	274
Further reading	274
INDEX	275
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	292