Governance in the 21st Century
Table of Contents

Chapter 1. Governance in the 21st Century:
Power in the Global Knowledge Economy and Society
by Wolfgang Michalski, Riel Miller and Barrie Stevens ........................................ 7

Chapter 2. Wealth, Values, Institutions: Trends in Government and Governance
by Daniel Tarschys .................................................................................................... 27

Chapter 3. Long-term Trends in Global Governance: From “Westphalia” to “Seattle”
by Kimon Valaskakis .................................................................................................. 45

Chapter 4. Governing by Technique: Judgement and the Prospects for Governance of and with Technology
by Perri 6 .................................................................................................................... 67

Chapter 5. A Quiet Revolution of Democratic Governance: Towards Democratic Experimentalism
by Charles F. Sabel .................................................................................................... 121

Chapter 6. Society as Social Diversity: The Challenge for Governance in the Global Age
by Martin Albrow ...................................................................................................... 149

Chapter 7. The New Governance, Subsidiarity, and the Strategic State
by Gilles Paquet ......................................................................................................... 183

Annex 1. List of Participants .................................................................................... 215