Constructing Identity in Contemporary Spain

Theoretical Debates and Cultural Practice

EDITED BY

JO LABANYI

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
Contents

List of Illustrations x

Notes on Contributors xi

1. Introduction: Engaging with Ghosts; or, Theorizing Culture in Modern Spain
   Jo Labanyi

   Part I: Ethnicity and Migration 15

2. Travels of the Imaginary Spanish Gypsy
   Lou Charnon-Deutsch

3. Elusive Song: Flamenco as Field and Passage for the Gitanos in Córdoba Prison
   Parvati Nair

4. Ethnic and Racial Configurations in Contemporary Spanish Culture
   Isabel Santaolalla

5. Identities at a Distance: Markers of National Identity in the Video-Diaries of Second-Generation Spanish Migrants in London
   Cristina Mateo
Part II: Gender

6. Melodramatic Feminism: The Popular Fiction of Carmen de Burgos
   Anja Louis

7. Good Girls go to Heaven: The Venerable Mari Carmen González-Valerio y Sáenz de Heredia (1930–1939)
   Jessamy Harvey

8. Victoria Abril: The Sex Which Is Not One
   Peter William Evans

9. Sex, Lies, and Traditions: La Cubana’s Teresina, SA
   Josep-Anton Fernàndez

10. Not Writing Straight, but Not Writing Queer: Popular Castilian ‘Gay’ Fiction
    Chris Perriam

Part III: Popular Culture

11. Fiesta Culture in Madrid Posters, 1934–1955
    Deborah Parsons

12. Musical Battles: Populism and Hegemony in the Early Francoist Folkloric Film Musical
    Jo Labanyi

13. Alaska: Star of Stage and Screen and Optimistic Punk
    Mark Allinson

    Xelís de Toro
Part IV: The Local and the Global

15. Uncanny Identity: Violence, Gaze, and Desire in Contemporary Basque Cinema 262
   Joseba Gabilondo

   Xon de Ros

17. Barcelona’s Magic Mirror: Narcissism or the Rediscovery of Public Space and Collective Identity? 294
   Antonio Sánchez

18. Spanish Quality TV? The Periodistas Notebook 311
   Paul Julian Smith

INDEX 335