CONTENTS

Acknowledgements ........................................................................... vii
List of Contributors ....................................................................... ix

Part One: The Liberal Trajectory

1. Issues and Trends in Contemporary Liberalism ........................................ 3
   Mark Evans
2. Twentieth-Century Liberal Thought: Development or Transformation? ............. 21
   Michael Freeden

Part Two: Citizenship: Universalism and Particularism

3. Human Rights and Ethnocultural Justice .................................................. 35
   Will Kymlicka
4. Liberalism and Citizenship ........................................................................ 51
   Andrew Vincent
5. The Sword of Faith and the Shield of Fear: Liberalism and the Power of the Nation .... 63
   Margaret Canovan
6. Liberal Citizenship and Feminism ............................................................ 75
   Andrea Baumeister

Part Three: Justice: Identity and Distribution

7. Liberalism and the Politics of Recognition .............................................. 89
   Jonathan Seglow
8. The Essential Indeterminacy of Rawls's Difference Principle ...................... 101
   Rex Martin
9. Rawlsian Theory, Contemporary Marxism and the Difference Principle ............ 113
   Rodney G. Peffer

Part Four: Problems of Liberal Justification

10. Disenchantment and the Liberalism of Fear ......................................... 135
    Peter Lassman
11. Pragmatist Liberalism and the Evasion of Politics .................................. 148
    Mark Evans
Contents

12. Liberalism and Contingency .................................................. 162
   Bruce Haddock

Part Five: Liberalism versus Republicanism?
   Richard Bellamy
14. Accommodating Republicanism ........................................... 188
   David Rasmussen

Part Six: The ‘Autonomous Individual’: Feminist Critiques and Liberal Replies
15. Liberalism, Feminism, Enlightenment ................................... 197
   Kate Soper
16. Feminism and Women’s Autonomy: The Challenge of Female Genital Cutting ................ 208
   Diana Tietjens Meyers

Part Seven: Liberalism Beyond the Nation-State
17. Civil Association: The European Union as a Supranational Liberal Legal Order ............. 225
   Robert Bideleux
18. The Idea of a Liberal-Democratic Peace ................................ 241
   Howard Williams
19. Constructing International Community:
   Liberal Theory, Developmental Communitarianism and International Ethics ............... 253
   Peter Sutch

Part Eight: New Directions for Liberal Thinking
20. Liberalism and Post-communism ........................................... 269
   Richard Sakwa
21. Liberalism, Ecocentrism and Persons ................................... 287
   Brian Baxter
22. Prolegomenon to a Liberal Theory of the Good Life ........................................ 299
   Mark Evans

Bibliography ................................................................. 312
Index ................................................................. 323