SHARING THE FRONT LINE
AND THE BACK HILLS
International Protectors and Providers:
Peacekeepers, Humanitarian Aid Workers
and the Media in the Midst of Crisis

Edited by
Yael Danieli
New York, USA

Foreword by
Kofi A. Annan
Secretary-General of the United Nations

Epilogue by
Kenzo Oshima
Under-Secretary-General for Humanitarian Affairs and Emergency Relief Co-ordinator

Published for and on behalf of the United Nations

BAYWOOD PUBLISHING COMPANY, INC.
AMITYVILLE, NEW YORK
Contents

FOREWORD, by Kofi A. Annan, Secretary-General of the United Nations . . iii

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS ................................................................. xiii

INTRODUCTION, Yael Danieli and Youssef Mahmoud .................. 1

Voices:
Are You Still There?—Reply, Carlos Caseres ........................... 6
I Lost My Life in Kuwait, Kathleen Nader ................................. 7
Why We Have to Be There, Christiane Amanpour ...................... 8

PART I. PEACEKEEPERS

CHAPTER 1.
Peacekeepers and Peace-Builders Under Stress ........................... 9
  Sue Downie

Voices:
An Ambush in Somalia, Shirley N. Brownell ............................ 21
The Evacuation Dilemma, Ian Martin ................................. 25
Heal—Don’t Forget, Mark Quarterman ................................. 29

CHAPTER 2.
Studies on Military Peacekeepers ........................................... 31
  Jos M. P. Weerts, Wendy White, Amy B. Adler, Carl A. Castro, Gielt Algra,
  Inge Bramsen, Anja J. E. Dirkzwager, Henk M. van der Ploeg,
  Maaike de Vries, and Ad Zijlmans

Voices:
Cambodia Diary, Mike Daly ................................................. 49
That Feeling of Importance and Respect, Major Cheryl A. Netterfield 50

PART II. UN AGENCIES AND PROGRAMS

Voice:
A Lifetime of Learning, Nils Arne Kastberg ............................ 51

CHAPTER 3.
Caring for Staff in UNHCR .................................................... 53
  Søren Jessen-Petersen

v
Voices:
Service Incurred, Martin Barber .......................... 61
Transformed by the Front Line, Yasmine Sherif .......... 62

CHAPTER 4.
Protecting the Protectors .................................. 64
  Catherine A. Bertini

Voices:
From Wyoming to Somalia, Dale Skoric .................. 68
The Worst is the Loneliness, Hiro Matsumura ............ 69
The Engulfing Sound and the Silence, Rhian Gastineau ... 69
We Cannot Allow Emotional Involvement, Erika MacLean ... 70
Lunch in Afghanistan, Georges Dubin ..................... 71

CHAPTER 5.
Risk and Protection for UNICEF Field Staff ............. 72
  Nils Arne Kastberg

CHAPTER 6.
Health Workers on the Front Line. ....................... 78
  Xavier Leus and Hilary Bower

CHAPTER 7.
Women on the Front Lines: UNIFEM’s Work to Promote Women,
Peace, and Security ........................................ 85
  Noeleen Heyzer

Voice:
Sex, Violence, Love, Loss, Hope: Men and Women in the Camps
  Speak to Us, Janet Albrecht ............................ 93

CHAPTER 8.
Supporting Staff During Crisis and on the Path to Development .... 95
  Omar Bakhet and Marie Dimond

Voices:
Healing is an Individual Process, Kathleen Cravero ....... 101
What Aid Workers and Frogs Have in Common, Marie Dimond .... 102

CHAPTER 9.
Managing Projects on the Ground. ....................... 104
  Reinhart Helmke

Voices:
Humane Human Resources Management, Alicia Noeli Escursell .... 105
Perseverance Despite Adversity, Basil Comnas ............. 107

Voices: The Manager’s Perspective
Reason for Hope, Shashi Tharoor .......................... 108
These Decisions Haunt Me Still, Kathleen Cravero ........ 109
Watching for the Signals, Paul E. Arès .................................. 115
Nothing Prepared Me, Linda Champoux-Arès .......................... 120

CHAPTER 10.
Stress and Mine Action ............................................... 122

_Martin Barber_

_Voice:_
An Eye Witness in Cambodia, Becky Jordan ..................... 126

CHAPTER 11.
Handle With Care: A View from the Staff Counsellor’s Office .... 128

_Jean-Guy Morisset_

_Voices:_
Separation from Families, Kim Robinson ......................... 134
The Story of Somebody Who Went Out to Learn About Fear ..., Petra Miczaika ........................................................... 135

CHAPTER 12.
United Nations Human Rights Field Officers ....................... 137

_Ben Majekodunmi_

_Voice:_
“You and Your People Will Never Live Here Again,” Milburn Line ... 147

PART III. VOLUNTEERS

CHAPTER 13.
Eternal Vigilance .......................................................... 149

_Sharon Capeling-Alakija_

_Voices:_
Showing “Presence,” Benny Ben Otim ............................... 155
Honored to Be Able to Defend, Manual Amat ....................... 156

CHAPTER 14.
The Peace Corps Volunteer Safety Support System ............... 157

_Michael D. O’Neill and Elizabeth Kramer_

PART IV. NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS (NGOs)

CHAPTER 15.
Precious Lives Honored to Serve .................................... 161

_Kris Hurlburt_

_Voice:_
Red Crayon, Janet Shriberg ........................................... 170
CHAPTER 16.
The Dangers of Aid Work. .................................................. 171
   Barbara Smith

Voice:
An Unspoken Agreement, Gerald Martone. .................................. 177

CHAPTER 17.
Psychosocial Care for Humanitarian Aid Workers: The Médecins
Sans Frontières Holland Experience ........................................... 179
   Piet van Gelder and Reinoud van den Berkhof

Voice:
Like a Squeezed Lemon, Marc Vachon ..................................... 186

CHAPTER 18.
GOAL—A Champion of the Poor ............................................. 188
   Andrew Spearman

CHAPTER 19.
Supporting and Equipping National and International Humanitarian
Non-Governmental Organizations and Their Workers ..................... 194
   Alastair Ager, Erik Flapper, Tineke van Pietersom, and Winnifred Simon

Voice:
Being Knowledgeable Can Help Enormously, Maria Blacque-Belair ...... 201

CHAPTER 20.
Sustaining the Humanitarian Work Force: Increasing Violence,
Increasing Vulnerability ...................................................... 204
   Shiela M. Platt, Milagros Bacareza, and Sonia Margallo

CHAPTER 21.
Limiting the Risks and the Vulnerability of Humanitarian Aid Workers .. 211
   Clémentine Olivier

Voices:
A Prison Without Bars, C. O. ................................................. 220
Yet Another Evacuation, P. C. ................................................ 221
An Evacuation from Sierra Leone, I. A. R. ................................ 222

CHAPTER 22.
Preventing Broken Hearts, Healing Broken Minds .......................... 223
   John Fawcett

Voice:
In God’s Lap, M. R. ............................................................... 233

CHAPTER 23.
Local Community Capacity: The Source of Renewal ........................ 236
   Ian D. Campbell and Alison Rader
Voice:
A Family Blood Feud in Kosovo, Stevan Weine .................................. 240

CHAPTER 24.
Mental Health of Humanitarian Aid Workers in Complex Emergencies .... 242
    Barbara Lopes Cardozo and Peter Salama

IN THE SEARCH FOR JUSTICE

CHAPTER 25.
Surviving with the Dead: Forensic Investigations in the Service of Human Rights ................................................................. 256
    William D. Haglund and Susannah M. Sirkin

Voices:
A Voice for Victims, M. Cherif Bassiouni .......................................... 266
My Introduction to Genocide, Ben Kiernan ........................................ 267
We Must Do More, B. M. .................................................................... 269
Prosecuting War Crimes, Minna Schrag .............................................. 270
Impartial Observer Drawn into Sleepless Moral Conflict, Mariana Goetz .. 271
Survivors and Observers, Priscilla B. Hayner ....................................... 273

PART V. MEDIA

CHAPTER 26.
We Have a Long Way to Go ............................................................... 275
    Chris Cramer

Voices:
Courage Isn’t Enough: Learning from Other People’s Mistakes,
    John Owen .................................................................................. 281
Don’t Go if You Can’t Deal with the Consequences, Gary Knight ........ 283
How I Learned to Live with Trauma, Josh Friedman ............................ 285
A Piece of Our Soul, Elizabeth Neuffer .............................................. 286
A Dinner by Candlelight, Bill Berkeley .................................................. 287
Photographer or Photojournalist? John Isaac ....................................... 289
Full Circle, Ron Haviv ........................................................................ 290
The Chance to Cry, Frank Smyth ......................................................... 292
All for the Story? Paddi Clay ............................................................... 296
Dying to Tell the Story, Kathy Eldon .................................................... 298
Working in the Third World, Beryl Goldberg ...................................... 299
Who Cares for Those Who Care? Barbara Bertoncin ......................... 300
Personal Armor, Christine Spolar ....................................................... 301
War Children: The Highly Personal “Spin,” Sherry Ricchiardi .......... 303

CHAPTER 27.
Journalists, War and Post Traumatic Stress Disorder ........................... 305
    Anthony Feinstein and John Owen
CHAPTER 28.
The Bridge between Sorrow and Knowledge: Journalists and Traumatic Stress ........................................ 316
Elana Newman

CHAPTER 29.
Centurion: Shielding Journalists and Aid Workers ................................................................. 323
Bo Mills, Paul Rees, and Gordon J. Turnbull

CHAPTER 30.
The Forgotten Tribe ................................................................. 331
Robert M. Frank

PART VI. CHALLENGES AND REMEDIES

CHAPTER 31.
Issues of Security in the United Nations System ................................................................. 336
Diana Russler and Shirley N. Brownell

CHAPTER 32.
Psychological Debriefing ................................................................. 343
Beverley Raphael and Robert J. Ursano

CHAPTER 33.
Humanitarianism at Risk: From Threatened Aid Workers to Self-Deceiving Organizations ................................................................. 353
Mark Walkup

CHAPTER 34.
Training for Humanitarian Assistance ................................................................. 360
Kevin M. Cahill

CHAPTER 35.
M.-Christiane Bourloyannis-Vrailas

CHAPTER 36.
A Call for an Accountability Campaign ................................................................. 374
Arthur C. Helton

Voice:
Some Principles of Self Healing, Yael Danieli ................................................................. 379

CONCLUSION, Yael Danieli ................................................................. 381

EPILOGUE, Kenzo Oshima, Under-Secretary-General for Humanitarian Affairs and Emergency Relief Co-ordinator ................................................................. 391

ABOUT THE EDITOR ................................................................. 396

CONTRIBUTORS ................................................................. 398

INDEX ................................................................. 412