Contents

List of Contributors ix
Acknowledgements xiii
List of Abbreviations xv

PART I: MINISTERIAL ETHICS — THE PROBLEM
AND THE THEORY

1 The Case for Ministerial Ethics
Jenny Fleming and Ian Holland 3

2 Motivating Ministers to Morality
The Right Hon. Lord Nolan 11

3 ‘Educating Devils’: Theoretical Reflections on Ethics and Governance
Haig Patapan 21

PART II: LESSONS FROM WESTMINSTER:
CODES AND CONVENTIONS

4 The Role of Ministerial Responsibility in Motivating Ministers to Morality
Diana Woodhouse 37

5 Ministerial Codes, Cabinet Rules and the Power of Prime Ministers
Patrick Weller 49

6 Lessons from Westminster: The Scottish Executive and New Improved Codes of Conduct?
Mark Shephard 61
PART III: WALKING THE TIGHTROPE: SERVING THE PARTY

7 Institutional Weaknesses, Ethical Misjudgement: German Christian Democrats and the Kohl Scandal
   Wolfgang Seibel

8 Problem or Solution? The Role of Ministerial Staff
   Anne Tiernan

PART IV: ETHICAL VIGILANCE: WATCHDOGS AND GUARD DOGS

9 Honesty and Corruption in the Canadian Federal Government: Regulating Ethics
   Robert J. Jackson

10 Integrity and Ministerial Office: The Queensland Integrity Commissioner
    Noel Preston

11 Conduct Unbecoming: Independent Commissions and Ministerial Adversaries
    Jenny Fleming

12 The Role of the Auditor-General in Scrutinizing Ministerial Ethics
    John Wanna and Alexander Gash

13 Ministerial Ethics and the Media
    Stephen Tanner

PART V: MOTIVATING MINISTERIAL BEHAVIOUR

14 Prior Advice is Better than Subsequent Investigation
    Charles Sampford

15 Moderating Ministerial Ethics: Putting Political Ethics in its Place
    John Uhr