Contents

Foreword vii
Geoffrey Parker

Introduction xi
Jane Hathaway

Part I. Problems in Defining Mutiny

1 Desertion as Mutiny: Upcountry Georgians in the Army of Tennessee
Mark A. Weitz 3

2 Mutineer Johnny? The Italian Partisan Movement as Mutiny
Victoria C. Belco 25

Part II. Mutiny and Empires

3 Ideology, Greed, and Social Discontent in Early Modern Europe: Mercenaries and Mutinies in the Rebellious Netherlands, 1568–1609
David J. B. Trim 47

4 Mutinies on Anglo-Jamaica, 1656–60
Carla Gardina Pestana 63

Part III. Mutiny in British India

5 Vellore 1806: The Meanings of Mutiny
Devadas Moodley 87
vi • Contents

6 Military Culture and Military Protest: The Bengal Europeans and the "White Mutiny" of 1859 103
Peter Stanley

7 The Indian Army, Total War, and the Dog That Didn't Bark in the Night 119
Raymond Callahan

Part IV. Mutiny in Emerging Nation-States

8 The Politics of Seduction: Mutiny and Desertion in Early Nineteenth-Century Córdoba, Argentina 131
Seth Meisel

9 One Hundred Fathers to None: Success and Failure in Two Wuhan Mutinies, 1911 and 1967 145
Christopher A. Reed

Part V. Naval Mutinies

10 Mutiny in the Destroyer Division of the Baltic Fleet, May–June 1918 169
Anatol Shmelev

11 Austro-Hungarian Naval Mutinies of World War I 195
Lawrence Sondhaus

Part VI. Mutiny Remembered, Recounted, Reinvented

12 The River Crossing: Breaking Points (Metaphorical and "Real") in Ottoman Mutiny 215
Palmira Brummett

13 The Symbolism of Slave Mutiny: Black Abolitionist Responses to the Amistad and Creole Incidents 233
Roy E. Finkenbine

14 With God on Our Side: Scripting Nasser's Free Officer Mutiny 253
Joel Gordon

Index 273

Contributors 281