Governing London: Competitiveness and Regeneration for a Global City

Edited by
Stephen Syrett and Robert Baldock

Centre for Enterprise and Economic Development Research (CEEDR)
Middlesex University

Middlesex University Press
London
Contents

List of Figures and Tables v
List of Contributors vi
Acknowledgements xi
Preface xii

   Stephen Syrett and Robert Baldock 1

2. Unpacking ‘Competitiveness’ as a Governance Issue for London?
   Ian Gordon 23

3. Reforming Metropolitan Regions - European Models?
   Peter Newman 35

4. The International Context: Considering the Economic Regeneration Capabilities of the GLA and LDA
   Greg Clark 45

5. Agenda-Setting in the GLA with Particular Reference to City Marketing and the Role of the LDA
   Andrew Thornley 68

6. The Potential Role of the LDA in London’s Economic Regeneration
   Eric Sorenson 82
7. Strategy and Partnership: Governing London in the Millennium
Nick Bailey 92

8. Will London Boroughs be Winners or Losers in the New Regional Structures for London?
Bob Colenutt 104

Susanne MacGregor 110

10. Ethnic Business in the London Economy
Ram Gidoomal 122

11. Expert or Lobbyist? Universities, the New Regional Agenda and London's Governance
Paul Benneworth and David Charles 134

Stephen Syrett and Robert Baldock 148

Index 161