Contents

Preface ix

I
Politics and Identity
Argentina and Nicaragua

1. The Popularized Gaucho Image as a Source of Argentine Classical Music, 1880–1920 3
Deborah Schwartz-Kates

2. The Tango, Peronism, and Astor Piazzolla during the 1940s and '50s 25
María Susana Azzi

3. Socially Conscious Music Forming the Social Conscience
Nicaraguan Música Testimonial and the Creation of a Revolutionary Moment 41
T. M. Scruggs

4. Rock Chabón
The Contemporary National Rock of Argentina 70
Pablo Semán and Pablo Vila

II
Locality and Interlocality
North America and Cuba

5. Crossing Borders
Mexicana, Tejana, and Chicana Musicians in the United States and Mexico 97
John Koegel
6. A Chicano in a Cuban Band
   Okan Ise and Songo in Los Angeles
   Javier Barrales Pacheco 126

7. The Bolero Romántico
   From Cuban Dance to International Popular Song
   George Torres 151

8. “Give Your Body Joy, Macarena”
   Aspects of U.S. Participation in the “Latin” Dance Craze of the 1990s
   Melinda Russell 172

III
Globalization and Mass Mediation
Brazil and Peru

9. Music and Place in the Brazilian Popular Imagination
   The Interplay of Local and Global in the Mangue Bit Movement of Recife, Pernambuco, Brazil
   Philip Galinsky 195

10. Popular Music and the Global City
    Huayno, Chicha, and Techno-cumbia in Lima Raúl R. Romero 217

11. Viral Creativity
    A Memetic Approach to the Music of André Abujamra and Karnak
    John Murphy 240

12. Doing the Samba on Sunset Boulevard
    Carmen Miranda and the Hollywoodization of Latin American Music
    Walter Aaron Clark 252

Contributors 277

Index 279