Future Citizens in Europe

Edited by Alistair Ross

Proceedings of the fourth conference of the Children’s Identity and Citizenship in Europe Thematic Network

a CiCe publication
London: 2002
CONTENTS

Introduction: Future Citizens in Europe
Alistair Ross

1. Theory and practice in citizenship education

Abstracts

Social strategies in the discourse of societal and citizenship understanding
Jeff Vass

The challenging process of preparing education professionals to promote citizenship awareness
Sigrún Adalbjarnardóttir

Is teaching history actually aiming at citizenship?
Nicole Tutiaux-Guillon

Young people and citizenship in the European union
Dave Edye

An analysis of primary school pupils’ attitudes to citizenship and the implications for teacher education
Hana Lukásová-Kantorková, Martina Rozsypalová and Marta Sigutová

An analysis of adolescents’ attitudes and opinions: the pre-conditions for effective education for citizenship
Pavel Vacek and Jan Lašek

Educational practices, citizenship education and moral regulation: the example of the Greek curriculum
Despina Karakatsani

Citizenship education in the new inter-disciplinary National Curriculum of Greece
Sarantis Chelmis and Elias Matsagouras

Citizenship education in the UK: a radical alternative or failed communitarian experiment?
Jill Rutter

2. Developing values: consumers and competitors

Abstracts

Developing consumer citizenship
Victoria W. Thoresen

The threat of consumer society: ideas among pedagogues about young children’s economic learning
Elisabet Näsman and Christina von Gerber

Young people’s perception of the competitive and the non-competitive person in a society in social transition
Márta Fülöp
A democratic perspective of educational change: self-evaluation and the clarification of values
Randi Andersen

3. Minorities: needs and priorities for education

Abstracts

Developing civic dispositions by generating experiences around democratic ideals
Doyle Stevick

Meeting the other culture
Helle Kjaerulf

What maps don’t say: introducing student teachers to the analysis of the mismatches between cultural and political frontiers in Europe
Maria Villanueva and Carmen Gonzalo

Citizenship education and non-citizens: learning about asylum-seekers and refugees in the UK
Jill Rutter

Building culture in the classroom: the role of Romany assistants in the Romany classroom
Iveta Kovalciková, Juraj Kresila and Alica Petrasova

Minorities’ rights in the educational system of the Republic of Slovenia: based on an example of geographical education
Karmen Kolenc-Kolnik

“Why didn’t you fight, Ruby?” Developing citizenship in infant school through teaching about significant people in history
Hilary Claire

Citizenship in mainly white schools: the marginalisation of the minority ethnic voice
Pam Carroll

A process from accounts to reflections. Working with a multicultural group of 72 teacher students
Nanny Hartsman
4. Media and technology in citizenship, culture and identity education

Abstracts

Citizenship education: the role of media environments in active learning
Jan Mašek

Creating a new culture of communication
Sarantis Chelmis, Marie Clarke, Riitta Korhonen, Cass Mitchell-Riddle, Søren Hegstrup

Analysis of pictures in reading textbooks for 6-year-old children
Ákos Gocsáld

A gathering of equals: a workshop on how to create communities of democratic enquiry in the classroom
Garth Katner and Peter Temes

5. Teaching controversial issues: controversial teaching

Abstracts

The past, the present and future didactics. A constructivistic field of view in the light of 11 September
Wim Kratsborn

Social-moral dilemmas of teachers: how they reflect the issues of citizenship
Adam Niemczynski

Experiential learning in civic education
F. Klaus Koopmann

Younger children's political learning: concept-based approaches versus issues-based approaches
Alistair Ross

An intervention programme for the development of children's argumentative composition competencies with socio-moral dilemmas
Sarantis K. Chelmis

Active learning in citizenship education: pre-service teachers' perceptions
Maureen Killeavy and Marie Clarke

Teaching controversial issues in context: Greek Cypriot student teachers' perceptions of citizenship
Mary Koutselini

Teaching about democracy, democratic processes and controversial issues: dilemmas and possibilities
Cathie Holden

Where does education take place?
Søren Hegstrup
6. Socialisation and rights in early years education

Abstracts

The child today, the ruling citizen of tomorrow
Kristin Dyrjörd

Can primary socialisation be democratic?
Yveline Fumat

The family and kindergarten connection: the rights of the pre-school child
Jana Bezensek

Young Europeans in the making - a three-country experiment
Yveline Fumat and Myreze Maz

7. European-wide projects in citizenship education

Abstracts

From “Citizens First” to “Citizenship Education in Europe – education in an European context”
Thomas Bauer

Some conclusions from the IEA study for civic education curriculum renewal
Edgar Krull

The influence of home environment and school climate on the participation of students in social actions
Constantinos Papanastasiou and Mary Koutselini

8. Developing identities in a changing Europe

Abstracts

Attitudes and identity: a comparative study of the perspectives of European children
Beata Krzywosz-Rynkiewicz, Cathie Holden, Panayotta Papoulaia-Tzelepi, Julia Spinthourakis, Maria Luisa de Freitas, Hugo Verkest, Marjanca Pergar Kuscer, Akos Gocsal, Riitta Korhonen

Cultural identity problems in contemporary pedagogy in Latvia
Zoja Chehlova

Portuguese elementary teachers’ perceptions of Portugueseness, Europeanness and the role of Social Studies
Maria Luisa Freitas, Glória Solé and Ana Almeida

Cultural and civic identities in the context of civic education
Jelena Petrucijová

Music pedagogy for developing national identity and preserving musicality in Latvia
Anna Liduma

Issues in forming a Latvian identity in the reality of Europe
Inese Jurgena
Identity, culture, and pedagogical thinking in first semester courses at the Slagelse Institute of Social Education 381
Kirsten Scheel Nielsen and Jesper Froda

Cross-cultural rearing: Italian-Swedish young adults’ experiences of growing up with two cultures 383
Elisabet Plöjel Westmoreland

Development of youth identity in Europe: a Slovenian case 387
Darja Kobal

Becoming European with the Euro: teenagers’ attitudes before and after 2002 393
Christine Roland-Lévy