The History of Anglo-Japanese Relations, 1600–2000
Volume III: The Military Dimension

Edited by

Ian Gow
Professor of Asian Studies
University of Nottingham

and

Yoichi Hirama
Rear-Admiral (Retd)
Japanese Self-Defence Forces

with

John Chapman
Scottish Centre for War Studies
University of Glasgow
Contents

Foreword vii

Preface ix

Editors' Note and Acknowledgement x

List of Contributors xi

List of Abbreviations xii

Part I From Pupils to Partners 1

1 Days of Seclusion 3
   A. Hamish Ion

2 Anglo-Japanese Military Relations, 1800–1900 13
   Michio Asakawa

3 The Royal Navy and Japan, 1900–1920: Strategic Re-Evaluation of the IJN 35
   Ian T.M. Gow

4 The Anglo-Japanese Alliance and the First World War 51
   Yoichi Hirama

5 Britain, Japan and the ‘Higher Realms of Intelligence’, 1900–1918 71
   John W.M. Chapman

Part II From Allies to Antagonists 89

6 Double-Edged Estimates: Japan in the Eyes of the British Army and the Royal Air Force, 1900–1939 91
   John Ferris

7 The Royal Navy and Japan, 1921–1941 109
   Ian T.M. Gow

8 Britain, Japan and Inter-War Naval Limitation, 1921–1936 127
   Tadashi Kuramatsu

9 The Path Towards an ‘Anti-British’ Strategy by the Japanese Navy between the Wars 139
   Yoshio Aizawa
10 Britain, Japan and the 'Higher Realms of Intelligence', 1918–1945 151
   John W.M. Chapman

Part III From Foes to Friends 173

11 The Imperial Army Turns South: the IJA's Preparation for War against Britain, 1940–1941 175
   Haruo Tohmatsu

12 'Ground of Our Own Choosing': the Anglo-Japanese War in Asia, 1941–1945 186
   John Ferris

13 The Anglo-Japanese War and Japan's Plan to 'Liberate' Asia, 1941–1945 202
   Sumio Hatano

14 British Assessments of Japanese Naval Tactics and Strategy, 1941–1945 222
   Philip Charrier

15 British Policymakers and the Prisoner-of-War Issue: Perceptions and Responses 232
   Sybilla Jane Flower

16 Changes in Perception: British Civil and Military Perspectives on War Crimes Trials and Their Legal Context, 1942–1956 242
   R. John Pritchard

17 The Japanese Military's Attitude Towards International Law and the Treatment of Prisoners of War 255
   Yoshito Kita

18 The British Commonwealth Occupation Forces in Japan and its Association with the Japanese 280
   Takeshi Chida

19 The Anglo-Japanese Relationship after the Second World War 293
   Yasuaki Imaizumi

Index 304