Social Sciences
and Political Change

Promoting Innovative Research
in Post-Socialist Countries

Philosophy & Politics Series
No.9
Contents

INTRODUCTION

Research and Political Change: A Philosophical Perspective .... 15
  Gabriel Fragnière

Research in Central Europe before 1989:
The Experience of the Research Support Scheme –
Four Points of View ......................................................... 23
  Gyorgy Enyedi – Karel Kouba – Tibor Vamos – Andrzej Rychard

PART I
OLD AND NEW VALUES

New Values for New Societies ......................................................... 35
  Elvio Baccarini

A Response to Elvio Baccarini .............................................. 41
  Marina Sorokina

Old and New Values in a Period of Crisis .................................. 45
  Nadezhda Platonova

Liberalism and Its Troubles with Nationalism ............................. 53
  Neven Sesardic

A Response to Neven Sesardic ............................................... 65
  Vahur Made

PART II
ETHNICITY, NEW NATIONALISM
AND CULTURAL IDENTITIES

National Myths and Folklore in the Balkans after 1989 .............. 71
  Iveta Todorova-Pirgova
“Enemies” and “Defenders” in Political Discourse .......................... 81
Tatiana Tsyrendorjieva

A Response to Tatiana Tsyrendorjieva ........................................ 91
Aija Priedête

Multicultural Dimensions of Social Integration in “e-Europe” .......................... 95
Bogdan Nadolu

A Response to Bogdan Nadolu ....................................................... 101
Krassimira Baytchinska

PART III
PEOPLE ON THE MOVE

Reshaping the Social Landscape in Eastern Europe – The Case of Community Development in Romania .......................... 109
Iuliana Precupetu

A Response to Iuliana Precupetu .................................................. 125
David Melua

Socio-Economic and Political Mechanisms of Population Migration in the Republics of the Former Soviet Union .......................... 129
Ekaterina Scherbakova

A Response to Ekaterina Scherbakova ........................................... 137
Viachaslau Nasevich

Political Landscape of Central and Eastern Europe: Challenges and Dilemmas of the Comparative Study of Political Scenes and Geographies .......................... 141
Tomasz Zarycki

A Response to Tomasz Zarycki ..................................................... 151
Krisztina Keresztély
PART IV
THE FUTURE OF ECONOMIC RESEARCH

Research on Transformation Alternatives ........................................... 157
Milan Sojka

A Response to Milan Sojka ................................................................. 167
Galina Koleva

Research on Poverty: Trends, Challenges, and the Impact of the RSS Grant ................................................................. 169
Nada Stropnik

Research on Privatisation: What Is to Follow? .................................. 175
Marina Kolesnikova

Illustrative Research: Monetary Stabilisation and Banking Reform in Latvia ................................................................. 179
Inese Vaidere

PART V
RESPECTING OUR CULTURAL HERITAGE

Memory and Culture ........................................................................ 185
Lidia Starodubtseva

Political Posters in Central and Eastern Europe 1945-2000 .............. 193
James Aulich

A Response to James Aulich .............................................................. 201
Kázmér Kovács

Neoclassicism in the 1920s: Hungary, Czechoslovakia, and Poland .................................................................................. 207
András Zwickl

A Response to András Zwickl ............................................................. 215
Martina Pachmanová

The Country Estate as the Subject of Cultural Studies in Russia .......... 219
Ekaterina Dmitrieva
PART VI
RESEARCH FOR SAVING OUR NATURAL HERITAGE

Sustainable Utilisation of Natural Forests:
Lessons to Be Learned .................................................. 237
Normunds Prieditis

Renewable Energy Resources and Rural Communities.................................................. 249
Khasan Karimov

Environment, Health and Sustainable Development in Transition Countries................................................... 257
Nicolae Opopol

Assessing the Quality of Agricultural Land in Ukraine........... 267
Tatyana Laktionova

CONCLUSION

Some Thoughts on the Future of Research.............................. 273
Yehuda Elkana

ANNEX

RSS Academic Management .............................................. 283