Gandhi in his time and ours

The global legacy of his ideas

HURST & COMPANY, LONDON
Contents

Preface xi

1 Introduction: The Gandhian Dialogic 1

2 An Incorporative Nationalism 12
   - Forging a Nationalist Hegemony 22
   - The Disciplined Nation 26
   - Invented Histories of the Nation 32

3 Dialogic Resistance 39
   - Popular Forms of Mass Resistance in India 41
   - Satyagraha 51
   - Individual Conscience 54
   - Ahimsa 57
   - Satyagraha Within the Indian Polity 63

4 An Alternative Modernity 66
   - Hind Swaraj 67
   - A Gandhian Civilisation 72
   - The Constructive Programme 77
   - Gandhi, Socialism, and the Doctrine of Trusteeship 81
   - The Gandhian Critique Beyond India 85

5 Father of the Nation 94
   - Gandhi’s Family Life 95
   - Gandhi and Sexual Desire 102
Marriage and Patriarchy 105
Women and Satyagraha 109
The Critique of Patriarchy 116

6 Dalit and Adivasi Assertion 123
Dalits 126
Adivasis 136
Dalits, Adivasis, and the Indian Nation 154

7 Fighting Religious Hatreds 156
Gandhi, Muslims, and Hindu Nationalists 158
The ‘National Duty’ of the Hindu Patriot 174
Gandhi and Christianity 177
Partition and Gandhi’s ‘Finest Hour’ 184
Gandhian Anti-Communal Work Since Independence 191

8 Gandhian Activism in India After Independence 198
The Bhoodan and Gramdan Movements 202
The Naxalite Alternative 207
The JP Movement 210
JP’s ‘Total Revolution’ 212
The Chhatra Yuva Sangharsh Vahini 214
Women and Anti-Liquor Movements in India 216
Vahini and Women’s Rights 218
Chipko Andolan 221
Narmada Bachao Andolan 224
Gandhian Activism Since 1980 234

9 Gandhi’s Global Legacy 238
Some Contemporary Western Reactions 238
Gandhi and the Pacifist Movement 245
Gandhian Resistance on a World Stage 253
The African–American Struggle in the USA 255
The Revolt Against Apartheid in South Africa 277
Petra Kelly and the German Greens 284
CONTENTS

10 The Moral Activists' Lonely Path to Martyrdom 294
Bibliography 303
Index 321