Powers of Utterance

a Discourse approach to works of Lorca, Machado and Valle-Inclán

Robin Warner

HiPLAM
Bristol
2003
CONTENTS

1. CONCEPTS AND METHODS
   1.1 Discourse and Literature: Basic Definitions 1
   1.2 Text, Context and Coherence 9
   1.3 Text and Performance
      (i) Foregrounding, Utterance Function and Implicatures in a Poem of Neruda 20
      (ii) Dialogue, Speech Acts and Irony in the Theatre of Valle-Inclán 33

2. POETRY AS UTTERANCE: ANTONIO MACHADO
   2.1 A Condemned Building: Utterances and Adjectives in ‘El hospicio’ 60
   2.2 The Power of Metaphor 76
   2.3 Friendly Interrogation: ‘A José María Palacio’ 86
   2.4 Dissenting Voices 100
   2.5 Texts Then and Now: ‘Los olivos’ 111

3. THE POWER OF THEATRE: LORCA
   3.1 Valle-Inclán, Lorca and the Language of Melodrama 123
   3.2 Ballad as Drama: ‘Romance de la luna, luna’ 141
   3.3 Experiment and Expression: Así que pasen cinco años 151
   3.4 By Way of Conclusion 182

Bibliography 187