Becoming Maya
Ethnicity and Social Inequality in Yucatán since 1500

Wolfgang Gabbert

The University of Arizona Press
Tucson
(2004)
Contents

List of Illustrations vii
Acknowledgments ix
Introduction: Ethnicity in Yucatán—Concepts and State of the Art xi

Part I The Conquest of Yucatán and the Development of Colonial Rule, 1500–1821: Tribute Economy and Estate Stratification 3
   1 Conquest and Colonial Rule 5
   2 Demography and Social Structure 16
   3 Group Consciousness 26

Part II From Independence to Revolution, 1821–1910: The Caste War and the Development of a Monocrop Economy 37
   4 Economic Development 39
   5 The Caste War 46
   6 Social Inequality and Social Categories 60

Part III From the Mexican Revolution to the Present: Revolution, Social Mobility, and Structural Violence 81
   7 Economy and Politics since 1915 83
   8 Ethnic Discourses, 1915–40 90
   9 Education and Language Policies since the Revolution 102
   10 Social Categories and Status Symbols 110
11 The Chenes Region 126
12 Ethnicity and Social Inequality in Yucatán—a Summary 154

Notes 163
Sources and Secondary Literature 211
Index 245