Creating Insecurity
Realism, Constructivism, and US Security Policy

ANTHONY D. LOTT
St. Olaf College

ASHGATE
Contents

Acknowledgements vii

1 Introduction 1
   • The Historical Origins of the Current Crisis 3
     The Argument that Follows 7

2 Realists on Security 10
   Morgenthau 10
   Herz 12
   Wolfers 14
   Waltz 15
   Buzan 17
   Realism and the Traditional Study of Security 20
   The Success and Failure of the Traditional Approach 25

3 Constructivists on Security 27
   Writing Security 28
   Security, Identity, and Interests 31
   The Culture of National Security 35
   Security: A New Framework for Analysis 38
   Constructivism and the Study of Security 40
   The Successes and Failures of Constructivism 46

4 Understanding the Sources of Insecurity 48
   Constructivism as Epistemology 51
   Interpreting Politics 53
      • Realism, Cautious Paranoia, and Material Capabilities 54
      • Political Constructivism, Identity, and Cultural Reflection 56
   Balancing Security Considerations 64

5 Creating Insecurity I: Unilateral BMD Development and U.S. Security 68
   The History of BMD Development 70
   Realism and BMD Development 77
   Political Constructivism and BMD Development 87