CONTENTS

VOLUME IV  WELFARE FUTURES

Acknowledgements vii

Introduction to Volume IV 1
NICHOLAS DEAKIN, CATHERINE JONES-FINER AND BOB MATTHEWS

67 National welfare states, European integration and globalization: a perspective for the next century 5
STEPHAN LEIBFRIED

68 Can we define a European Welfare State model? 27
PETER BALDWIN

69 States of welfare: a conceptual challenge 41
JOHN VEIT-WILSON

70 Social movements, welfare and social policy: a critical analysis 69
GREG MARTIN

71 The real worlds of welfare capitalism 88
ROBERT E. GOODIN, BRUCE HEADEY, RUUD MUFFELS AND HENK-JAN DIRVEN

72 The body in social policy: mapping a territory 106
JULIA TWIGG

73 Associationalist welfare: a reply to Marc Stears 124
PAUL HIRST

74 Good-enough principles for welfare 132
FIONA WILLIAMS
CONTENTS

75 Postmodernism and social policy: a great leap backwards 153
   PETER TAYLOR-GOOBY

76 Globalization, inequality and social policy: China on the threshold of entry into the World Trade Organization 172
   XINPING GUAN

77 The American Welfare State at twilight 189
   DAVID STOESZ

78 Thinking about the production and consumption of long-term care in Britain: does gender still matter? 206
   CLAIRE UNGERSON

79 The Greens and social policy: movements, politics and practice? 226
   JOHN BARRY AND BRIAN DOHERTY

80 Subject to control: lesbians and the state 249
   TAMSM WILTON

81 What kind of society should Britain become? 274
   ANTHONY GIDDENS

82 Privatization, devolution and the Welfare State: rethinking the prevailing wisdom 285
   STEVEN RATHGEB SMITH AND DANIEL J. EVANS

83 Sustaining state welfare in hard times: who will foot the bill? 311
   PETER TAYLOR-GOOBY

84 A fresh look at the Japanese Welfare State 329
   ITO PENG

85 In search of a welfare democracy 361
   TONY FITZPATRICK

86 Rorschach politics: Tony Blair and the third way 373
   RUDOLF KLEIN AND ANNE-MARIE RAFFERTY

87 Public–private partnerships: a UK case study 382
   NICHOLAS DEAKIN

88 Contemporary challenges to Welfare State development 397
   CHRISTOPHER PIERSON

Index 419