European Union Negotiations
Processes, networks and institutions

Edited by Ole Elgström and Christer Jönsson
Contents

List of illustrations ix
Notes on contributors x
Preface and acknowledgements xii

1 Introduction
CHRISTER JÖNSSON AND OLE ELGSTRÖM 1

PART I
The European Union as a negotiation arena 11

2 Negotiations in networks
CHRISTER JÖNSSON AND MARIA STRÖMVIK 13

3 Consolidating ‘unobjectionable’ norms: negotiating norm spread in the European Union
OLE ELGSTRÖM 29

4 Negotiating transparency: the role of institutions
BO BJURULF AND OLE ELGSTRÖM 45

5 Reform negotiations: the case of the CAP
MALENA ROSEN AND MAGNUS JERNECK 63

6 Compliance bargaining
JONAS TALLBERG AND CHRISTER JÖNSSON 79

7 Negotiations in European Union committees
ANDERS SANNERSTEDT 97
Contents

PART II

The European Union as an actor in international negotiations

8 The European Union as an international negotiator
OLE ELGSTRÖM AND MARIA STRÖMVIK

9 Setting the global trade agenda: the European Union and the launch of the Doha Round
ANDERS AHNLID

10 The European Union as actor in international relations: the role of the external environment for EU institutional design
JOAKIM REI TER

11 The European Union and the United States of America: the politics of 'bi-multilateral' negotiations
MICHAEL SMITH

12 The Cotonou agreement: asymmetric negotiations and the impact of norms
OLE ELGSTRÖM

13 Breaking the waves: the European Union’s enlargement negotiations with EFTA and central and eastern Europe
LYKKE FRIIS

14 Conclusion
OLE ELGSTRÖM AND CHRISTER JÖNSSON

Index  