State Crises, Globalisation and National Movements in North-East Africa

Edited by Asafa Jalata
Contents

List of contributors ix
Foreword xi
Preface xiii

1 The process of state formation in the Horn of Africa in comparative perspective
ASAFA JALATA 1

2 The racialised and Islamicised Sudanese State and the question of Southern Sudan
AMIR IDRIS 30

3 Global capitalism and the Oromo liberation struggle: theoretical notes on US policy towards the Ethiopian empire
WILLIAM I. ROBINSON 45

4 Two national liberation movements compared: Oromia and Southern Sudan
ASAFA JALATA 78

5 The Oromo Gada system of government: an indigenous African democracy
LEMMU BAISSA 101

6 Contending democracies: US-sponsored ‘democracy’ encounters indigenous Oromo democratic forms
BONNIE K. HOLCOMB 122
Contents

7  The Sidama nation and the solidarity of colonised nations in Ethiopia  165
   SEYOUNM YUNKURA HAMESO

8  Globalisation and Africa: reconstructing the failed Somali state and reviving national identity  182
   ALICE BETTIS HASHIM

9  What next in the Horn of Africa? Reconsidering the state and self-determination  202
   LEENCO LATA

Select bibliography  231
Index  246