

Sonja Puntsher Riekman, Monika Mokre,
Michael Latzer (ed.)

The State of Europe

Transformations of Statehood
from a European Perspective

A 2005/ 9850

Campus Verlag
Frankfurt/New York

Contents

INTRODUCTION

The State of Europe

Towards a Theory of European Integration: From Grand Theories to Metaphorical Description and Back

Sonja Puntscher Riekmann 9

TRANSFORMATIONS OF THE STATE

The Fate of the State

Martin van Creveld 33

The Transformation of the State in the Digital Age

Volker Schneider 51

THE STATE OF EUROPE

The European Union and Recent Transformations in Statehood

Bob Jessop 75

Economic Liberalism and Political Democracy in Europe

Michel Aglietta 95

REPRESENTATION AND CITIZENSHIP IN EUROPE

Towards a European Democracy

Bo Stråth 117

Compounded, Contested, Complex: Representation in Multi-level Systems and the Transformation of the State

Johannes Pollak and Peter Slominski 133

(Women and) The Costs of Representation: On State, Representation, Power, and Exclusion Monika Mokre	153
The Shape of a New Species: Citizenship and Territorial Borders in the EU Polity Rainer Bauböck	170
Plurinational Democracy and the European Order Michael Keating	196
 CHANGING MODES OF GOVERNANCE
Transparency as a Mechanism of Governance in Financial Systems Peter Mooslechner, Martin Schürz, Beat Weber	217
The Making and Breaking of Reputational Governance in Global Financial Markets Timothy Sinclair	237
Self- and Co-Regulation as Indicators of a Transformed Statehood in the Mediamatics Sector Natascha Just and Michael Latzer	266
 EUROPEAN GOVERNANCE
Information, Commitment, and the Transformation of European Governance Giandomenico Majone	289
Constructing Multi-site Governance: WTO Law in the European Courts Francis Snyder	306
The Role of the (Highest) Judiciary in the Supranational European Legal Order Bedanna Bapuly	329
 CONCLUSION AND OUTLOOK
The Future of Europe Monika Mokre	349