PUBLIC SERVICE REFORM IN EAST ASIA

Reform Issues and Challenges in
Japan, Korea, Singapore and Hong Kong

Edited by
Anthony B. L. Cheung

The Chinese University Press
Contents

Acknowledgements ........................................................................................................... vii
List of Contributors ......................................................................................................... ix

1. Introduction .................................................................................................................. 1
   Anthony B. L. Cheung

2. The Debilitating Power of Japan’s Central Government Bureaucrats in Civil Service Reform: Reality or Fallacy? ........ 19
   Akira Nakamura

   Kengo Akizuki

4. Making the Civil Service Competent: A Case Study of the Korean Civil Service Reform ......................................................... 63
   Pan Suk Kim

   Jon S. T. Quah

6. Recent Changes in the Financial Management of the Singapore Civil Service: The Adoption of Resource Accounting, Internal Charging and Revenue Retention .......... 105
   David Seth Jones
7. Enhancing “Executive Accountability” in the Hong Kong Government ................................................................. 125
   John P. Burns

8. Civil Service Pay Reform in Hong Kong: Principles, Politics and Paradoxes ...................................................... 157
   Anthony B. L. Cheung

9. Outsourcing: Enhancing Private Sector Involvement in Public Sector Services Provision in Hong Kong .............. 193
   Mark Richard Hayllar

10. Bureaucratic Autonomy and Administrative Reform Capacity in East and Southeast Asia ............................. 231
    Martin Painter

Appendices

   Appendix A: Highlights of Public Service Reform in Japan since the 1990s ...................................................... 257
   Appendix B: Highlights of Public Service Reform in Korea since the 1990s ...................................................... 259
   Appendix C: Highlights of Public Service Reform in Singapore since the 1990s ................................................. 263
   Appendix D: Highlights of Public Service Reform in Hong Kong since the 1990s ................................................. 267

Bibliography ............................................................................................................................................. 271
Index ...................................................................................................................................................... 297