THE POLITICS OF EGALITARIANISM
Theory and Practice

Edited by
Jacqueline Solway

Berghahn Books
New York • Oxford
CONTENTS

Introduction
  Jacqueline Solway

Part I: The Politics and Practices of Egalitarianism

1. All People Are (Not) Good
  Bruce G. Trigger

2. Community, State, and Questions of Social Evolution in Karl Marx's Ethnological Notebooks
  Christine Ward Gailey

  Thomas C. Patterson

4. "The Original Affluent Society": Four Decades On Jacqueline Solway

5. The Original Affluent Society
  Marshall Sahlins

6. On the Politics of Being Jewish in a Multiracial State
  Karen Brodkin

Part II: The Kalahari Then and Now

7. The Lion/Bushman Relationship in Nyae Nyae in the 1950s: A Relationship Crafted in the Old Way
  Elizabeth Marshall Thomas

8. The Kalahari Peoples Fund: The Activist Legacy of the Harvard Kalahari Research Group
  Megan Biesele
9. Land, Livestock, and Leadership among the Ju/'hoansi San of North-Western Botswana 149
   Robert K. Hitchcock

10. Contemporary Bushman Art, Identity Politics, and the Primitivism Discourse 159
    Mathias Guenther

11. Class, Culture, and Recognition: San Farm Workers and Indigenous Identities 189
    Renée Sylvain

12. The Other Side of Development: HIV/AIDS among Men and Women in Ju/'hoansi Villages 205
    Ida Susser

Part III: Richard Borshay Lee: An Appreciation

    Compiled by Jacqueline Solway

    Christine Ward Gailey

Richard Borshay Lee: Selected Bibliography 243
    Compiled by Jacqueline Solway

Notes on Contributors 249

Index 253