AGENTS OF THE REVOLUTION

NEW BIOGRAPHICAL APPROACHES TO THE HISTORY OF INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM IN THE AGE OF LENIN AND STALIN
Contents

Contributors ........................................................................................................................................ 7
List of Abbreviations ......................................................................................................................... 11
Introduction ........................................................................................................................................ 13

Part 1: Methodologies

Communist Prosopography in France:
  Research in Progress based on French Institutional Communist Autobiographies ....................... 21
    Claude Pennetier and Bernard Pudal

In Search of the Typical British Communist .......................................................... 37
    Gidon Cohen and Andrew Flinn

Part 2: Leaders

A Hungarian in the Comintern:
  Jozsef Pogany / John Pepper ................................................................. 57
    Thomas Sakmyster

General Secretariat and General Secretaries:
  The Case of the French Communist Party ................................................. 73
    Jean Vigreux and Serge Wolikow

A German Communist: Clara Zetkin (1857–1933) ........................................ 93
    Tânia Ünlüdag-Puschnerat

Revolution and Personal Crisis: Communist Politics and Personal Narrative in the Life of William Z. Foster ............ 111
    James R. Barrett
Contents

Communist MP: Willie Gallacher and British Communism ........................................... 133
Andrew Thorpe

A Communist of a Special Mould: Umberto Terracini’s Opposition to the Cominform Turn in 1947 ........................................ 159
Aldo Agosti

Part 3: Cultures

A Family Party? Some Geneaological Reflections on the CPGB ............................................. 173
Kevin Morgan

Every Family a Red Fortress? Geneaological Aspects of Communist Biographies in Austria ............................................. 197
Wolfgang Weber

The Formative Years of the Communist ‘Moral Community’ in the Netherlands 1917–30 ............................................. 221
Gerrit Voerman

A Good Comrade, a Good Cadre: Autobiographies and Evaluation Reports as a Part of Cadre Policy in the Finnish Communist Party During the 1940s and 1950s ............................................. 245
Pirjo Kaihovaara

Kiwi Comrades: The Social Basis of New Zealand Communism, 1921–48 ............................................. 265
Kerry Taylor

The Finnish Sector at the International Lenin School ............................................. 289
Joni Krekola

Index ............................................. 309