THE CHALLENGE TO SPANISH NOBILITY IN THE FOURTEENTH CENTURY
The Struggle for Power in Don Juan Manuel's Conde Lucanor, 1335

James A. Grabowska

The Edwin Mellen Press
Lewiston•Queenston•Lampeter
Table of Contents

Preface
Anthony N. Zahareas

Acknowledgements

Introduction

Chapter 1
Introduction to the Problems of Rhetoric and Power in the Conde Lucanor

Chapter 2
Socio-political History and Literary Production in Fourteenth-century Castile

- Penchants of Juan Manuel Criticism
- Strategies Toward a New Model of Criticism
- The Vernacular and Didactic Purpose
- The Social Right to Write: Building Auctoritas
- Within the Oral, Medieval Literary Tradition (Exempla and Proverbs)
- The Power of Scripting Experience

Chapter 3
Organizational Keys to the Conde Lucanor

- Aristotelian Causae and the Prologue to the Conde Lucanor
- The efficient cause
- The material cause
- The final cause
- The formal cause
- The Question of Order in the Conde Lucanor
- The Function of Memory
- The Three Levels of Hermeneutic Dialogue
- Memoria ad res
- Illumination as Memorial Mnemonic
- Brevitas
- Virtue and the De regimine principum of Giles of Rome