CONTENTS

SERIES EDITOR'S FOREWORD ix

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS xi

1 MEDIATIZED CONFLICT IN THE WORLD TODAY 1
Contemporary society, conflict and change 4
Researching mediatized conflict 6
Why 'mediatized' conflict? 8
Plan of book 9

2 GETTING A FIX ON MEDIATIZED CONFLICT: PARADIGMS AND PERSPECTIVES 13
The manufacturing consent paradigm 14
  Some critical reflections 17
The media contest paradigm 20
  Some critical reflections 23
The media culture paradigm 25
  Some critical reflections 27
Chapter summary 29
Recommended reading 32

3 REPORTING DEMONSTRATIONS AND PROTEST: PUBLIC SPHERE(S), PUBLIC SCREENS 33
Media and demonstrations: civil rights and civil wrongs 34
Geopolitics, dramaturgy and repertoires of protest 40
  Geopolitics 41
  Dramaturgy 43
  Repertoires of protest 45
Mediatized Conflict

Global activism and media: public sphere(s) or public screens? 46
Chapter summary 52
Recommended reading 53

From Moral Panics to Mediatized Public Crises: Moving Stories of 'Race' and Racism 54

- Media and 'race' 55
- Moral panics 56
- Media events 58
- Media scandals 60
- Mediatized public crises 61
- Media and the racist murder of Stephen Lawrence: a case study 62
  - Breach 63
  - Mounting crisis 63
  - Redress 66
  - Reintegration/Schism 68
Chapter summary 72
Recommended reading 73

War Journalism: Disembodied and Embedded 74

- Media at war: what's known 80
- Theorizing beyond the Vietnam syndrome – and back again? 85
- Going culturally deeper: the phenomenology of war and professional myths 88
- Globalization and the changing theatre of war 90
  - 24/7 Real-time reporting 93
  - Embedding 94
    - Audiences and body horror 95
Chapter summary 98
Recommended reading 99

Peace Journalism and Other Alternatives: On Hopes and Prayers 100

- Peace journalism: muting the sound of guns? 101
- Development journalism: deepening participation? 107
- Public journalism: engaging citizens and democracy? 111
- Alternative journalism on-line: public connectivity? 114
Chapter summary 117
Recommended reading 119

Media, 'Risk Society' and the Environment: A Different Story? 120

- 'Risk society', ecological hazards, media 121
- Relations of definitions: agenda building beyond primary definers 123
- Cultural resonance and the rhetoric of environmental images 130