Rethinking Ethical Foreign Policy
Pitfalls, possibilities and paradoxes

Edited by David Chandler and Volker Heins
Contents

Notes on contributors ix

Introduction 1

1 Ethics and foreign policy: new perspectives on an old problem 3
   VOLKER HEINS AND DAVID CHANDLER

PART I
Geographies of ethical intervention 23

2 Neo-Wilsonianism: the limits of American ethical foreign policy 25
   ALEX GOUREVITCH

3 Crusaders and snobs: moralizing foreign policy in Britain and Germany, 1999–2005 50
   VOLKER HEINS

4 Poor man’s ethics? Peacekeeping and the contradictions of ethical ideology 70
   PHILIP CUNLIFFE

PART II
Theoretical issues 91

5 The ‘West divided’? Bentham and Kant on law and ethics in foreign policy 93
   PETER NIESEN
Contents

6 European Union, normative power and ethical foreign policy 116
IAN MANNERS

7 Moral judgements on international interventions: a Bosnian perspective 137
ISABELLE DELPLA

PART III
Techniques and tactics of ethical intervention 159

8 The Other-regarding ethics of the ‘empire in denial’ 161
DAVID CHANDLER

9 Agents of truth and justice: truth commissions and the transitional justice epistemic community 184
MICHAL BEN-JOSEF HIRSCH

10 Precision in uncertain times: targeting as a mode of justification for the use of force 206
ARIEL COLONOMOS

11 Trusteeship and contemporary international society 224
WILLIAM BAIN

Index 239