Peace Psychology

A Comprehensive Introduction

Herbert H. Blumberg, A. Paul Hare and Anna Costin

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS
Contents

Preface
page vii

Acknowledgements
page viii

The scope, structure and content of this book
page ix

Part I Introduction
page 1

1 Trends in peace psychology
HERBERT H. BLUMBERG
page 3

Part II Interdisciplinary practice
page 17

2 Government policy and international relations
HERBERT H. BLUMBERG
page 19

3 Education
HERBERT H. BLUMBERG
page 31

4 The feminist approach
ANNA COSTIN
page 37

5 Philosophy, ethics and religion
HERBERT H. BLUMBERG
page 46

Part III Primary psychological topics
page 53

6 Developmental issues: children and adolescents
ANNA COSTIN
page 55

7 Theory and practice related to primary psychological topics: attitudes, psychodynamics, cognition and images, and aggression
ANNA COSTIN AND A. PAUL HARE
page 71
8  Language and communication
   HERBERT H. BLUMBERG

Part IV Core topics in peace and environmental studies
9  Conflict resolution
   A. PAUL HARE
10  Emergency decisions, crisis management and the effects of conflicts
    HERBERT H. BLUMBERG
11  Nonviolence and peace movements
    A. PAUL HARE
12  Peacemaking, wars and crises
    HERBERT H. BLUMBERG
13  The Middle East, Russia and other specific areas
    A. PAUL HARE
14  Sustainable development
    HERBERT H. BLUMBERG

Part V Terrorism
15  Terrorist threats
    ANNA COSTIN
16  Victims of terrorism
    ANNA COSTIN

References
Index