TRANSATLANTIC RELATIONS AT STAKE
ASPECTS OF NATO, 1956—1972

Series Editors
Andreas Wenger and Victor Mauer
Center for Security Studies, ETH Zurich
Contents

Preface 5

Introduction

Christian Nuenlist and Anna Locher
Drifting Apart? Restoring the NATO Consensus, 1956–1972 9

Part I

Ralph Dietl

Ine Megens
Interdependence in Principle and in Practice, 1957–1966 51

Bruno Thoss
Information, Persuasion, or Consultation? The Western Powers and NATO during the Berlin Crisis, 1958–1962 73

Part II

David Tal
The Burden of Alliance: The NPT Negotiations and the NATO Factor, 1960–1968 97

Mary Halloran

Robin S. Gendron
The Domestic Cost of NATO Membership: Canada’s Commitment to NATO Unity and the Growth of Separatism in Quebec, 1956–1967 145
Part III

Bruna Bagnato
NATO in the mid-1960s: The View of Secretary-General Manlio Brosio 165

Vincent Dujardin
Belgium, NATO, and Détente, 1960–1973 189

Oliver B. Hemmerle
Explaining NATO to the West Germans: Helmut Schmidt as a Military Affairs Writer in the 1960s 215

Conclusion

Lawrence S. Kaplan
Reflections on the US and NATO in the 1960s 237

List of Contributors 251