Caribbean Narratives of Belonging

Fields of Relations, Sites of Identity

Edited by

Jean Besson and Karen Fog Olwig

MACMILLAN CARIBBEAN
2005
Contents

The contributors ix
Series preface xiii
Introduction
Caribbean narratives of belonging 1
Karen Fog Olwig and Jean Besson

PART 1 Narratives of place and displacement 15
1. Sacred sites, shifting histories: narratives of belonging, land and globalisation in the Cockpit Country, Jamaica 17
Jean Besson
2. Narratives and the cultural construction of belonging in Sligoville, Jamaica’s first free village 44
Yvonne Davis-Palmer
3. Montserratian narratives of belonging in the midst of disaster and relocation 63
Tracey Skelton
4. A city of meanings: place and displacement in urban Jamaican self-framings 79
Huon Wardle

PART 2 Narratives of inclusion and exclusion 95
5. Narratives of belonging and identity in the Dominican Republic 97
Donald Macleod
6. Staying and contributing: narratives of belonging in Belize 115
Flemming Daugaard-Hansen
7. Localising Cubanness: social exclusion and narratives of belonging in Old Havana 133
Mette Louise Berg
8. Rastafari as a counter-hegemonic culture and discourse in post-revolutionary Cuba
Katrin Hansing

9. Language, identity and Caribbean families: transnational narratives
Mary Chamberlain

10. Narratives of home: visions of 'betterment' and belonging in a dispersed Caribbean family
Karen Fog Olwig

11. Expanding narratives of emigration and return
Margaret Byron

12. Narratives of longing, belonging and caring in the Dominican Diaspora
Ninna Nyberg Sørensen

PART 4 Narratives of Caribbean identities

13. Decolonising narratives, double consciousness and barbarian writing: Fergus and the Writers' Maroon of Montserrat
Jonathan Skinner

14. Cultural politics in personal narratives of Caribbean heritage in Britain
Brian W. Alleyne

15. Projecting the 'natural': language, citizenship and representation in outernational culture!
William (Lez) Henry

Index