International Organizations and Implementation
Enforcers, managers, authorities?

Edited by Jutta Joachim, Bob Reinalda and Bertjan Verbeek
PART I
Introduction

1 International organizations and implementation: pieces of the puzzle
JUTTA JOACHIM, BOB REINALDA AND BERTJAN VERBEEK

1 International organizations and policy implementation 3
2 Defining implementation 5
3 International organizations and implementation 8
4 Outline of the volume 14

PART II
The institutional resources of international organizations

2 Two variations on a theme? Different logics of implementation policy in the European Union and the International Labour Organization
MIRIAM HARTLAPP

1 Introduction 21
2 Implementation policies in the EU 23
3 Implementation policies in the ILO 27
4 Conclusion 30
Contents

3 Beyond the carrot and the stick: state reporting procedures in the World Trade Organization and the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development 35

THOMAS CONZELMANN

1. Introduction 35
2. Variants of reporting procedures 37
3. State reporting in the WTO and the OECD 40
4. Conclusion 44

4 International organizations and the implementation of new financial regulations by blacklisting 48

J. C. SHARMAN

1. Introduction 48
2. Background 49
3. Blacklisting, speech acts and reputation 51
4. Authority 55
5. Blacklisting in decline 57
6. Conclusion 59

5 Bureaucratic authority and the implementation of international treaties: evidence from two convention secretariats 62

STEFFEN BAUER

1. Introduction 62
2. Bureaucratic authority of international organization secretariats 63
3. The Ozone Secretariat: a case of technocratic guidance 64
4. The Desertification secretariat: a case of political advocacy 67
5. Conclusion 70

6 International policy implementation through gate keeping: the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers 75

GEORGE CHRISTOU AND SEAMUS SIMPSON

1. Introduction 75
2. Conceptual framework 75
3. ICANN and ccTLD name policy implementation 77
4. Challenges to the position of the state in ICANN’s policy implementation 80
5. Conclusion 85
7 All bark and no bite? The implementation styles of the European Union and the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development in education policy 88
KERSTIN MARTENS AND CAROLIN BALZER

1 Introduction 88
2 Modes of governance by international organizations 88
3 International organizations and governance in education 90
4 Conclusion 98

PART III
Domestic-level factors, international organizations and implementation 103

8 Pincers and self-interest: implementing gender equality legislation under domestic and European pressures 105
ANNA VAN DER VLEUTEN

1 Introduction 105
2 Explaining enforcement 106
3 The pincers at work 109
4 Conclusion 115

9 The Achilles' heel of European regulation: national administrative styles and the Commission's neglect of practical implementation 120
ESTHER VERSLUIS

1 Introduction 120
2 Setting the scene 122
3 Case studies 125
4 The European Commission: a true 'guardian of the Treaties'? 130
5 Conclusion 131

10 The implementation of the Basel Capital Accord in Hungary and Slovenia: the relative importance of domestic institutions 135
DORA PIROSKA

1 Implementation of international norms by countries in transformation 135
2 Hungary: why implementation proved challenging 137
3 Slovenia: comparable challenges but a different governmental attitude 138
Contents

4 Hungary: a weak supervisory agency for the banking sector 139
5 Slovenia: a strong and independent central bank as supervisor 140
6 Domestic institutions and the room for manoeuvre for IFIs 141
7 Conclusion 143

11 International Financial Institutions and Russia's civil service reform: international push or domestic pull? 147
PAT GRAY

1 Introduction 147
2 Analytical framework: a two-level game 148
3 International organizations and aid to Russia 149
4 The Russian civil service as an object of reform 150
5 The first phase of reform: 1991–94 151
6 The second phase of reform: 1995–99 152
7 The third phase of reform: 2000–04 154
8 Conclusion 156

12 International organizations, party politics and the promotion of minority rights in the Baltic states 161
DAVID J. GALBREATH

1 Introduction 161
2 Baltic independence and Baltic Russians: national visions and politics 162
3 Baltic independence and Baltic Russians: international visions and politics 164
4 Domestic politics under international pressure: three phases 166
5 Conclusion 172

PART IV
Conclusion 175

13 Enforcers, managers, authorities? International organizations and implementation 177
JUTTA JOACHIM, BOB REINALDA AND BERTJAN VERBEEK

1 Introduction 177
2 The institutional resources of international organizations 177
3 Domestic-level factors, international organizations, and implementation 183
4 Implications for the study of international organizations 187

Index 191