American Public Administration
Public Service for the 21st Century

Robert A. Cropf
St. Louis University
PART 1  THE POLITICAL AND SOCIAL ECOLOGY OF AMERICAN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION  1

Chapter 1  Public Service in the Twenty-first Century  1

Setting the Stage  1

■ Vignette 1.1  Crisis and Public Attitudes Toward Government  3

Chapter Plan  4

Why Study Public Administration?  4

Defining Public Administration  7

Public Administration as a Field of Study  9

Professionalism and Public Service  10

Administration Versus Politics  11

How is Public Administration Different From Business Administration?  11

Differences in strategy and planning  13

Managing internal components  14

Managerial Discretion and Autonomy  14

The Effect of Competing Values on Public Sector Performance  14

Differences in Personnel Systems  15

Management Timeframe  15

Differences in managing external constituencies  15

Bureaucratic Power and Accountability  16

Expertise  16

■ Vignette 1.2  Street-Level Bureaucratic Discretion  17

Size and stability  17

Administrative authority—delegation of power  18

Public Administration and Accountability  18

Civil Society and Public Administration  19
Chapter 2 The Growth of Government and Administration 25

Setting the Stage 25

Chapter Plan 25

Measuring the Size of Government 26
  Trends in government employment 26
  Trends in government expenditures 27
  Trends in government regulation 29

Explaining the Growth of Government 30

The Mixed Economy and the Growth of Government 31
  Monopoly 32
  Externalities 32
  Public goods 32
  Incomplete information 33
  The need for government action 34

Political Reasons for the Growth of Government 34
  The constitutional legacy 34
  Functional departments and client agencies 35
  The impact of national expansion on administration 36
  Growth in the industrial era 37
  Regulation and the growth of administration 38
  National defense and the growth of administration 39
  Public choice theory 40

Civil Society and the Growth of Government 41

Chapter Summary 41

Chapter Discussion Questions 42

Brief Case: Librarians Versus the USA Patriot Act 43

Key Terms 44

On the Web 44
The organization of the federal government 73
The president as administrator in chief 76
  Executive Appointment 77
  Reorganization 79
  Budgeting and Other Administrative Tools 80
Limitations on the executive's influence 81

The Legislature and Administration 84
  • Vignette 4.1 Enabling Legislation for the Defense Nuclear Safety Board 84
  Oversight powers 85
  Legislative veto 88
  Limitations on the legislature's control 89

The Judiciary and Administration 90

Reinventing Government 92
  The history of administrative reform 92
  The national performance review 93
  Results of reinventing government 95
  • Vignette 4.2 Reinventing Alabama State Government 96

Civil Society and Governmental Reform 96
Chapter Summary 98
Chapter Discussion Questions 98
Brief Case: Overseeing the Bureaucracy 99
Key Terms 101
On the Web 102

Chapter 5 Federalism and Public Administration 103

Setting the Stage 103
Chapter Plan 104
Defining Federalism and Intergovernmental Relations 105
Benefits and Costs of Federalism 107
  • Vignette 5.1 Reinventing Government at the State and Local Levels 108
The Constitutional Framework 109
The Courts and Federalism 110
Fiscal Federalism 112
Chapter 9
Motivation, Decision-Making, and Organizational Culture

Setting the Stage

Chapter Plan

Getting Work Done in Organizations: Motivation
What is motivation?
Incentives and motivators
Different theoretical approaches to motivation
The Hierarchy of Needs

Vignette 9.1  Abraham Maslow and the Hierarchy of Needs
Mature Personality in Organizations
Theory X and Theory Y
Two-Factor Theory
How Managers Apply Motivation Theories
Goal-Setting
Behavioral Approach

Organizational Decision-Making
The rational model
The incremental model
Mixed scanning
Group decision-making
Group Decision-Making Techniques
The Delphi Method

Vignette 9.2  The Abilene Paradox
Nominal Group Technique

Organizational Culture

Vignette 9.3  Miscommunication in the U.S. Intelligence Community

Vignette 9.4  A Real-Life Example of Bureaucraticse
Cultural change in public organizations
PART 3 THE CORE FUNCTIONS OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION 231

Chapter 10 Leadership in Public Administration 231

Setting the Stage 231

Chapter Plan 232

Moving the Organization Forward: Leadership in a New Era 232

Leadership and Management 233
  Management attributes 234
  Leadership attributes 234
  The importance of leadership and management 235

Levels of Leadership: Executives, Managers, and Street-Level Bureaucrats 236
  Executive leadership 236
  Managers as leaders 237
  Street-level leaders 238
  Importance of collaboration 239

Leadership Defined 239

Leadership Theory 239
  Leadership traits 240
  Leadership behaviors 240
  Contingency theory 241
  Path–goal theory 243
  Leader–member exchange theory 244
  Transformational leadership 244

Gender and Leadership in Public Administration 247
  Influence of gender bias on leadership 249

Leadership in the Public Context 250
Chapter 12

Privatization and Public Administration 277

Setting the Stage 277

Chapter Plan 278

The Whats and Whys of Privatization 278
  Types of privatization 278
  The rationales for privatization 281
    Economic Rationale 282
    Political Rationale 283

When to Privatize 283
  Advantages of nonprofits 285

Recent Privatization Trends 286
  The federal government 286
  Federal employee unions and privatization 288
  State governments 289
  Local governments 289

Privatization Outcomes 291

Problems with Privatization 292
  Accountability problems 292
  Cost savings problems 294

  Civil Society and Privatization 294

Chapter Summary 296

Chapter Discussion Questions 296

Brief Case: Privatizing Youth Services in Washington, D.C. 297

Key Terms 298

On the Web 298

Chapter 13

Public Budgeting and Finance 299

Setting the Stage 299

Chapter Plan 300

What Is Public Budgeting? 301
  The purposes of public budgeting 301
  The budget as a plan of action 302
  The budget cycle 302
    Preparation and Submission by the Executive 303
    Legislative Consideration and Approval 303
    Executive Implementation 303
    Audit Stage 303
Evolution of Public Budgeting 304
  Early budget reforms 304
  Performance budgeting 305
  Planning-programming budgeting systems 306
  Zero-base budgeting 308

Revenue Systems 308
  Taxes 309
    Individual and Corporate Income Tax 310
    Property Tax 311
    Sales Tax 312
  User fees 313

Vignette 13.1 Electronic Commerce and State Sales Taxes 313

Lotteries and gambling 315
Tax revolt movement 316

Models of Budgeting 316
  Rational budgeting 317
  Incremental budgeting 317

Capital Budgeting and Debt 318
  Types of debt 319
  Federal capital budgeting 320

Chapter Summary 321

Chapter Discussion Questions 322

Brief Case: Schwarzenegger’s Budget Crisis 323

Key Terms 324

On the Web 324

Chapter 14 Human Resource Administration in Public Organizations 325

Setting the Stage 325

Chapter Plan 325

What Is Human Resource Administration? 326
  Patronage and the merit system 326
  Evolution of public human resource administration 327
    The Era of Elites (1789–1829) 327
    The Era of the Common Man (1829–1883) 327
    The Era of Reform (1884–1906) 328
    The Era of Efficiency (1907–1932) 328
    The Era of Administrative Management (1933–1960) 328
    The Era of Professionalism (1961–1978) 328
The Era of Civil Service Reform (1978–1991) 329
The Era of Reinvention and September 11 (1992–present) 329
Court decisions affecting patronage 331
Public employees and political participation 331

The Public Human Resource Administration Process 332
Position classification 332
Evolution of personnel classification systems 333
Problems with the position classification system 334

Entering and Remaining in the Public Service 335
The examination process 335
Problems with civil service testing 336
Certification and selection 336
Employee appraisal 336
Pay comparability 337
Removal from the civil service 338

Labor Relations in the Public Sector 339
Differences between public and private labor relations 340
Evolution of federal labor relations 341

Vignette 14.1 A Tale of Two Federal Strikes 341
State and local government experience with labor relations 344

Social Equity in the Public Workplace 344
Evolution of equal opportunity policy 345
Types of social equity programs 346
The evolution of federal EEO laws 346
Court decisions affecting equal employment policy 347

The Current State of Equal Opportunity Employment 348
Comparable worth and the glass ceiling 348

Chapter Summary 352

Chapter Discussion Questions 352

Brief Case: Appraising Employees' Performance in the Parks Department 353

Key Terms 354

On the Web 355

Chapter 15 Managing Information Resources in Public Organizations 356

Setting the Stage 356
Chapter Plan 357

Concepts and Types of Information Systems 357

- Vignette 15.1 “They Is Clowning Tough”: 911 Operators as Organizational Knowledge Makers 359
  - Information systems 360
  - Information policy 361

The Impact of Information Technology on Public Organizations 362

- The URBIS model 362
  - Organization Structure 362
  - Employment 362
  - Decision-making 362
  - Quality of Work Life 363
  - Management 363
  - Politics 363

- Control and information islands 363
- Organizational decision-making 365
  - Strategic Planning 365
  - Administrators and Information Technology 365

- Organizational performance 365
  - Public versus Private Organizations’ Use of IT 366
  - Information Sharing 367
  - Technology for Innovative Administration 367

- IT’s Effects on public employees 367
  - Impact on Public Managers 368
  - Impact on Nonmanagement Employees 368
  - Human Factors Influencing IT Adoption 369
  - Other Personnel Issues 369

- Technology’s effects on organizational power 369

The Virtual Organization 370

Managing Information Resources: Government’s Experience 371

- Vignette 15.2 Successful Federal E-Government Initiatives 374

- Vignette 15.3 State and Local E-Government Success Stories 376

Government Information Policy Before and After 9/11 377

- Freedom of information 377
- Privacy 378
- Privacy in the information age 379
- Government information policy after 9/11 380