Human Security
and International Insecurity

edited by:

Georg Frerks and Berma Klein Goldewijk

Wageningen Academic Publishers
Table of Contents

Preface

The Need to Explore Human Security

M.S. Swaminathan

Part I Conflict and Agency

Human Security: Mapping the Challenges

Georg Frerks and Berma Klein Goldewijk

- Introduction
- The Emergence of the Post-Cold War Discourse on Human Security
- The Human Security Discourse of the UNDP
- Conceptual and Institutional Developments since 1994
- Problems, Issues and Dilemmas
- Human Security Approach: Agency, Discourse and Governance
- Conclusion
- References

Conflict, Development and Discourse

Georg Frerks

- The Entry of Development Cooperation on the Conflict Scene
- The Nexus Conflict and Development
- Development Cooperation in Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding
- Limitations and Concerns
- Conclusion
- References

‘New Wars’ and The State: The Nexus Religion-Human Security

Berma Klein Goldewijk

- Introduction
- Human Security, its Normative Character and Religion
- ‘New War’: Fighting the Last War Rather than the Next
- Religion, Secularisation and the Post-Westphalian State
- Dignity in a Perspective of ‘World Résolutique’
- Conclusions and Ways Forward
- References
Part II Local and Global Discourses

Is a Right to Technology an Antidote to War?
Paul Richards

- Introduction
- Young Africans Take Flight
- Inequality, Technology and Human Rights
- Historical Backgrounds to Hypermobility
- Long Delayed ‘Slave Revolts’
- Sustainable Skill Formation: For What?
- The Right to Contest and Food Security
- Conclusions
- References

Local Discourses on War-Related Resource Predation in Sub-Saharan Africa
Pyt Douma

- Introduction
- The Role of Youths in Sierra Leone, Liberia and Ivory Coast
- Ivory Coast and Sierra Leone Youth Movements Compared
- Youth Discourse on Political Economies of Conflict
- Post-Conflict Situations; Resource Predation Continued
- Conclusions
- References

New Terrorism and Human Security in the Middle East: Diverging Perceptions
Kayhan Barzegar

- Introduction
- New Terrorism and the Challenges to Human Security
- Terrorism: a Domestic or a Foreign Phenomenon?
- Terrorism: Violence or Resistance?
- Terrorism: Tools of Conducting War Operations
- Concluding Remarks
- References

Military Tendencies and Global Security: Is There an Alternative?
Elena Suvorova

- Introduction
- A New World Balance Has Not Been Reached
- Military Anti-Terrorism and Human Rights of Civilians
- Recent G8 Recommendations on Counteracting Terrorism
- Negotiations as Part of Conflict Resolution
- War on Terror as Pretext to Control of Territory
- Rich Need Military Forces to Control the Poor
Knowledge for the Sustainability Transition: Earth System Governance as a Crosscutting Theme of Global Change Research 197

Frank Biermann

- Introduction 197
- The Concept 198
- Problems and Principles 202
- Research Challenges 206
- Earth System Governance as Research Practice 212
- Conclusion 213
- References 214

HIV/AIDS: The Controversial Role of Discourse and Governance 219

Marie Muller

- Introduction 219
- Nature and Extent of the Epidemic 221
- HIV/AIDS: Controversies and Statistics 224
- History of the Epidemic 225
- History of the (Mis)management of the HIV/AIDS Epidemic 226
- Discourse and Governance 228
- References 231

Coalitions of Responsible People as Agents of Change 233

Eric T. Ferguson

- Introduction 233
- The Identity of CRPs 234
- The Structure of the Issues 236
- Using Results of Social Science 242
- Moving towards Action 243
- Conclusions 248
- References 248

Towards a Non-Violent Discourse in Science 249

Jerome Ravetz

- Introduction 249
- Why Should Science Be Changed? 249
- The Scientific Faith We Have Inherited 251
- Post-Normal Science 254
- Background: Varieties of Scientific Thought and Endeavour 256
- An Example of Innovation 257
- A Suggestion: Non-Violent Science 258
- References 261
Conclusions

Human Security and International Security: The Quest for Humane Global Governance 265
Berma Klein Goldewijk and Georg Frerks
- Introduction 265
- Human Security Discourse and the International Security Agenda 268
- Human Agency, Non-Citizens and Collective Responsibility 279
- Humane Global Governance: 'Problématique' and 'Résolutique' 287
- Conclusions 294
- References 295

Contributors 299

Index of Subjects 305

Index of Names 319