Performance Measurement
Building Theory, Improving Practice

An ASPA Classics Volume

Edited by
Patria de Lancer Julnes and Marc Holzer

ME. Sharpe
Armonk, New York
London, England
CONTENTS

Introduction .................................................................................................................. ix

Chapter 1. Making the Case for Performance Measurement ....................................... 3

Introduction ................................................................................................................. 3

Box 1.1 Measuring State and Local Government Performance: Issues to Resolve
Before Implementing a Performance Measurement System • Gloria A. Grizzle ............. 5

Box 1.2 The First Step in the Reinvention Process: Assessment • Montgomery Van Wart .... 8

Reading 1. The Case for Performance Monitoring
Joseph S. Wholey and Harry P. Hatry ........................................................................ 11

Chapter 2. Performance Measurement Purposes and Techniques ............................. 21

Introduction ................................................................................................................. 21

Purposes of Measuring Performance .......................................................................... 21

Box 2.1 Local Government Benchmarking: Lessons from Two Major
Multigovernment Efforts • Charles Coe ...................................................................... 23

Techniques for Assessing Performance ...................................................................... 24

Box 2.2 Comparative Performance Measurement: Insights and Lessons Learned from a Consortium Effort • Mary Kopczynski and Michael Lombardo ......... 25

Reading 2. Overcoming the Inadequacies of Performance Measurement in Local Government: The Case of Libraries and Leisure Services
David N. Ammons ......................................................................................................... 29
Chapter 3. Performance-Based Budgeting ................................................................. 47

Introduction ............................................................................................................. 47

Box 3.1 Using Performance Measures for Federal Budgeting: Proposals and Prospects • Philip G. Joyce ................................................................. 49

Box 3.2 The Road to PPB: The Stages of Budget Reform • Allen Schick ..................... 52

Reading 3. The State of the States: Performance-Based Budgeting Requirements in 47 out of 50
Julia Melkers and Katherine Willoughby ................................................................. 55

Chapter 4. Performance-Based Management ........................................................... 68

Introduction ............................................................................................................. 68

Box 4.1 State Agencies’ Experience with Strategic Planning: Findings from a National Survey • Frances Stokes Berry and Barton Wechsler ....................................................... 69

The Search for Accountability and Productivity ....................................................... 70

Reading 4. Putting a Powerful Tool to Practical Use: The Application of Strategic Planning in the Public Sector
Douglas C. Eadie ....................................................................................................... 73

Chapter 5. The Role of Citizens in Measuring and Promoting Performance .............. 82

Introduction ............................................................................................................. 82

Box 5.1 Coproduction: Citizen Participation in Service Delivery • Gordon P. Whitaker .................................................................................................................. 85

Box 5.2 Citizen Ratings of Public and Private Service Quality: A Comparative Perspective • Theodore H. Poister and Gary T. Henry ........................................................................ 86

Box 5.3 Citizen Satisfaction with Urban Services: Potential Misuse as a Performance Indicator • Brian Stipak .................................................................................................. 88

Reading 5. Reinventing Government or Reinventing Ourselves: Two Models for Improving Government Performance
Hindy Lauer Schachter ............................................................................................... 90